STATE REPORTS ON CHECKUP ON LOCAL SCHOOLS

The Gettysburg Times has received from the office of the state's auditor general, Thomas Z. Minehart, a report on the audit conducted some time ago by Minehart's office of the accounts of the Gettysburg Joint School District and its member districts for the school year that ended July 5, 1959.

In each district recommendations were made by the auditors about changes in practices required by state law. "These are not to be construed as criticisms but as aids to enable the school board to meet the various requirements to receive state aid," Regional Supervisor John A. Carden said in a letter to The Times. The audit covered a period which ended more than two years ago and in most instances board officials have changed and many directors since that time, it was pointed out. A copy of the state's audit report and the accompanying recommendations were received by the school districts some months ago and schoolmen said the recommendations have long since been placed in practice.

LACKED RECORDS

In the case of the Gettysburg Joint School accounts the auditors noted that the school depository did not carry collateral security for the school account in the amount of 120 per cent of the deposits secured as required by law. More details on bills presented to the board and reports of board action on the bills also were recommended.

In the case of the Gettysburg Borough School District, which no longer exists in that form, compliance with state law covering budgetary shifts is recommended, retention of invoices for six years and more complete minutes were suggested.

The report on Cumberland Twp. noted that some financial records for 1958-59 were not available for audit, some budgetary adjustments required by state law were not made, the school depository did not furnish a bond to secure school funds and did not furnish monthly statements. It was also noted that books of account were not maintained for the school year covered by the audit, checks were not prenumbered and more complete minutes were recommended.

Mr. Bigham also pointed out that this community's industrial losses have been to other states rather than to other communities in this state. An investigation and report on this phase of the situation was asked from the subcommittee.

Kennedy-Lodge Election Battle Set For November

EDWARD M. KENNEDY

GEORGE C. LODGE

By CORNELIUS F. HURLEY BOSTON (AP)—It's another Kennedy-Lodge election battle for Massachusetts—the fourth round in a long line of bouts for high political office.

The Democrats nominated Edward M. Kennedy, youngest brother of President John F. Kennedy, for the U.S. Senate by a landslide in Tuesday's primary.

The Republicans picked George Cabot Lodge, son of Henry Cabot Lodge, former U.N. ambassador who once held the Senate seat at stake in November.

The nominees are both young men. Kennedy turned 30, minimum age for a senator, last Feb. 22. Lodge is 35.

Though both have been campaigning on a day and night schedule since their victories in the party conventions last June, they planned an early start today in the election contest.

KENNEDY 2 TO 1

Kennedy ran better than 2-1 in the voting across the state over his rival, State Atty. Gen. Edward J. McCormack Jr., nephew of House Speaker John W. McCormack, D-Mass.

Lodge was in a closer battle for the GOP nomination with Rep. Laurence Curtis. The lead sawed back and forth.

Shortly before 2:30 a.m. Lodge made his victory speech at his election headquarters.

The Gettysburg Times has received from the office of the state's auditor general, Thomas Z. Minehart, a report on the audit conducted some time ago by Minehart's office of the accounts of the Gettysburg Joint School District and its member districts for the school year that ended July 5, 1959.

In each district recommendations were made by the auditors about changes in practices required by state law. "These are not to be construed as criticisms but as aids to enable the school board to meet the various requirements to receive state aid," Regional Supervisor John A. Carden said in a letter to The Times.

The audit covered a period which ended more than two years ago and in most instances board officials have changed and many directors since that time, it was pointed out. A copy of the state's audit report and the accompanying recommendations were received by the school districts some months ago and schoolmen said the recommendations have long since been placed in practice.

LACKED RECORDS

In the case of the Gettysburg Joint School accounts the auditors noted that the school depository did not carry collateral security for the school account in the amount of 120 per cent of the deposits secured as required by law. More details on bills presented to the board and reports of board action on the bills also were recommended.

In the case of the Gettysburg Borough School District, which no longer exists in that form, compliance with state law covering budgetary shifts is recommended, retention of invoices for six years and more complete minutes were suggested.

The report on Cumberland Twp. noted that some financial records for 1958-59 were not available for audit, some budgetary adjustments required by state law were not made, the school depository did not furnish a bond to secure school funds and did not furnish monthly statements. It was also noted that books of account were not maintained for the school year covered by the audit, checks were not prenumbered and more complete minutes were recommended.

Special attention will be given to changes taking place in the county and what the county will be like in the next decade.

The PTA council president, Dr. V. F. Group, and Mrs. Frank Myers, vice president and program chairman, said the meeting is open to all interested regardless of PTA membership.

NEGOTIATING WITH 3 NEW INDUSTRIES

Although matters have not reached a conclusive stage, the industrial committee of the Gettysburg Chamber of Commerce has negotiations currently underway with three new industries for the community, the committee reported at a luncheon meeting Tuesday at the Lamp Post Tea Room.

"Each of the prospective industries would be a 'very definite asset to our community. Temporary Chairman J. Howard Gaines said.

After a report from William A. Bigham, chairman of the subcommittee on sites, the committee agreed that there is no current need for an industrial park site. Mr. Bigham's report showed many sites for new industries are on file but the committee is badly limited on building space. That launched the discussion on the matter of an industrial park.

LEFT THIS STATE

Mr. Bigham also pointed out that this community's industrial losses have been to other states rather than to other communities in this state. An investigation and report on this phase of the situation was asked from the subcommittee.

Douglas Houston, who is chairman of the data subcommittee, read the lists of members assigned to his committee. Mr. Bigham's committee and to the subcommittee on promotion headed by James T. Hays.

40 RECIPES TO BE MADE AT COOK SCHOOL

Food can be prepared to look as pretty as a picture and the four-day food spectacular, "Portraits in Food" will illustrate that food can taste as good as it looks.

The Gettysburg Times Cooking School will be held in the Gettysburg High School auditorium on September 25, 26, and 27, with the cooperation of the National Livestock and Meat Board of Chicago.

More than 40 recipes will be prepared during the three programs by Miss Ruth Logan and Miss Patricia Turner, graduate home economists with the meat board. Both are skilled in the field of meat cookery and foods.

In addition to important information on preparing food, homemakers in the audience also learn of recent developments in the field of nutrition. Suggestions include facts from the findings of recognized researchers at many university medical centers. In this way, the homemaker is aided in preparing nutritious, as well as interesting and satisfying meals for her family.

BRIEF SESSION

Each program consists of a two-hour session. Distinctive new features and information on food are incorporated into each day's activities — each entirely new and different from the others. The climax of each of the four busy sessions is reached during "Portraits" when all of the day's splendid food masterpieces are artfully displayed in front of glittering revolving mirrors.

Recipe books entitled, "Portraits in Food" will be distributed to the audience-making available to them tasty menu ideas all year long. Homemakers in the audience also have an opportunity to win the photogenic food dishes prepared during the program as well as other valuable awards.

Police estimated damage to the Parr auto at $200 and to the Rimel car at $100.

Sixth Tyros Satellite Is Hunting Hurricanes

By HOWARD BENEDICT

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—The sixth U.S. Tyros satellite zipped around the globe today, snapping pictures of weather systems in a tuneup for its main assignment: hurricane hunting.

The latest in the successful series of Tyros meteorological satellites was fired into orbit from Cape Canaveral early Tuesday and within hours it was transmitting clear pictures of cloud cover above many areas of the world.

Several hours later the Air Force successfully launched a Minuteman missile from an underground silo on a 3,000-mile flight and moved the solid-fuel intercontinental range rocket near its operational goal of next month.

MICROFILMING OF RECORDS IS BEING URGED

The Adams County commissioners at their meeting this morning again took up the question of microfilming county records.

Atty. Ronald Hagerman and J. Francis Yake Jr., representing the county bar association, met with the commissioners to urge that the county begin such work.

During the morning, the commissioners also studied an indexing machine set up for a demonstration at the court house. The machine would provide complete indices, among other things placing all of the deeds that have been ever entered for each person on a separate listing so that one check of the deed index would show in each case all transactions involving each person.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

No final action was taken by the commissioners on microfilming, but their discussion indicated that they favor such a procedure and probably will in the near future advertise for machinery to carry out the operation.

Discussion was also continued on plans for a retirement system to be set up by the county for its employees before the beginning of the year, with no final action taken.

The commissioners reported that they have viewed 12 of the properties whose assessment have been appealed and expect within the next week or so to make final decisions on all real estate assessment appeals.

They said that all of the real estate assessment appeals scheduled for this month have been heard and the only assessment appeals still scheduled are a few from occupation assessments for which a schedule for hearings is now being formulated.

POLICE WERE BUSY TUESDAY

Borough police were busy Tuesday according to the police call sheet.

A truck operated by Frank Dearing Jr., 22, of 215 W. High St., and a car driven by Haskell Shapiro, 32, Harrisburg, were involved in a collision Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the intersection of Middle and Baltimore Sts.

The local officers said Dearing was driving south on Baltimore St. and attempted a right turn into W. Middle St. At that moment Shapiro, who was parked on Baltimore St., sought to drive south. The left front fender of the Shapiro sedan hit the right rear wheel and tire of the turning truck. Damage was estimated at $75 to the car and none to the truck.

William A. Johnson, owner of European Sport Car Association, Eply Building, Chambersburg St., reported at 1:30 Tuesday afternoon that during the night someone had stolen two super aluminum heads, valued at $700 from the center. The heads were from the motor of a car that was torn down for repairs.

Kenneth Dengler, president of the Recreation Board, reported to borough police Tuesday night that someone had broken cement blocks at the Recreation Park and had also cut lumber there.

WILLS PROBATED

GIVES VIEWS ON SOME OF NEW TV FARE

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—"Sam Benedict" will have to be fattened up considerably if NBC's new lawyer-series is to replace "Perry Mason" in the eyes and hearts of the Saturday night television audience.

Unhappily, Sam's rather pathetic skeleton was all too apparent on first sight this past weekend, in spite of frantic and obvious efforts to pad, divert and conceal.

Edmond O'Brien plays the San Francisco barrister breathlessly and turbulently, rushing around to handle crisis after crisis—getting a client acquitted of murder, collecting overdue rent and, in the main thread of plot, forestalling a blackmailing lawsuit.

It was in the principal story that the toothpick-thin plot was glaringly visible. Sam's good friend Mike died suddenly, and Mike's evil brother threatened to try to break the will in an attempt to get a bigger share.

STRONG COMEBACK

"Show of the Week" bounced back strong Sunday night with an offbeat morality play, "The Outpost." A five-man cast of competent performers—the men at an observation outpost of some nameless country at war—underscored author Roger O. Hirson's point, that it is easier to face certain destruction than shame.

The colonel (Claude Rains) was a thief; the captain (Richard Conte) a martinet who had marched the platoon into a quagmire; the lieutenant (Keir Dullea) a coward; the sergeant (Neville Brand) a murderer; and the private (Everett Sloane) a cuckold.

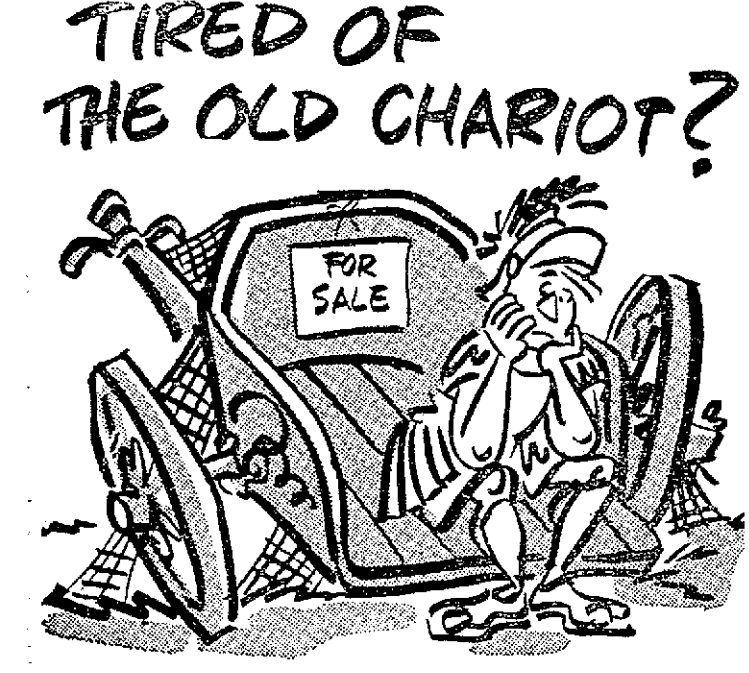

None was legally convicted, but their shame was known. So they all chose to remain in their outpost, ignoring the advance of the enemy, rather than return to their old lives.

It was interesting, intelligent and stimulating—a fine harbinger for the series' new NBC season.

Joey Bishop also returned to NBC—on Saturday night. This season he is more poised, more famous, and a successful established night club comedian. He also has picked up a wife on the show.

SAIGON Viet Nam (AP)—U.S. military personnel in South Viet Nam and Thailand next week will start using a high-powered radio network that can neither be jammed nor monitored by the enemy.

Signals will be bounced from the troposphere layer of the atmosphere to distant receiving points. Officials say the beam is so narrow it will be practically impossible to intercept at points off the line. Special equipment is needed to unscramble coded messages.

RERUNS, PLUGS FOR NEW TV SHOWS BORING

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
NEW YORK (AP)—Reruns of the dying summer television season are bad enough but the interminable plugs about the new one are worse.

At this time of the year, all normal rules limiting commercial time are suspended by tacit consent. While the cigarette and soap sponsors receive no extra time, the sky's the limit on promoting what laughingly may be called coming attractions.

CBS has sent out a half-hour film in which Jack Webb frankly conducts a 30-minute hard sell on the network's fall programming. It will be shown—if it hasn't already—on all the network affiliates.

ALL ALONG LINE

Sometimes it seems that all transcontinental planes must be stuffed with Hollywood names hurrying east for the game shows, panel shows, audience participation shows and interview shows to exhibit their profiles and tell the breathless world about the fun-shows they've been working on.

Earlier last week, for example, Jim Backus concluded a summer season of "Talent Scouts" on CBS. His "celebrity" guests included George Maharis, who had a few kind words to say about his singing discovery but many more about his soon-to-return "Route 66." Keefe Brasselle not only plugged his upcoming special but introduced his wife who is launching a nightclub singing career.

Jane Fonda talked up her forthcoming Broadway play and Hal March, who unfortunately didn't have a current project to sell, plugged a movie in which he will not appear made from a play in which he did.

CBS permitted Fess Parker to plug his new series which will be shown on ABC, a rival network. It was hard to see the entertainment amid all the sales talk.

RAIL STRIKE IMPASSE IS UNDER STUDY

WASHINGTON (AP)—Government officials studied today the impasse in the 19-day Chicago & North Western Railway strike to determine what they might try next for a solution.

"We've got to make some move," an official said. "We just can't let both sides sit there and glare at each other."

The glaring had to be at long distance, however. The C&NW board chairman, Ben W. Heineman, walked out of negotiations Saturday night. He said he would not return here until the striking Order of Railroad Telegraphers, AFL-CIO, agreed to accept recommendations of a presidential emergency board.

NOT AT SESSION

Heineman, as he had stated earlier, did not show up for a scheduled bargaining session Monday with representatives of the union and mediator Francis A. O'Neill Jr. Union President George Leigh said he would be at O'Neill's office.

"I hope Mr. Heineman will be there also," Leigh said in a statement. "Negotiations are the only way to end this strike."

The walkout, now in its 19th day, has idled about 15,500 workers and had a serious economic impact on a nine-state area.

The presidential board recommended that the union drop its demand for consultations on job eliminations.

Mr. Businessman... take 30 seconds and try this quiz:

1. Is there anyone who needs a phone, but doesn't have one?
2. Do you have trouble getting an outgoing line?
3. Do you miss incoming phone calls, because your line's busy?
4. Are your phones inconvenient to the people who use them?

If you answered "Yes" to any of these questions, your organization may be "Phone Starved"... and you may be missing additional sales because of it. Check today with your telephone company business representative. He'll be happy to help your firm to greater efficiency through communications.

STATE REPORTS

Similar recommendations are made. The auditors found that the check signer was not an authorized board officer. Instances were cited in which minutes were not signed by the secretary. More complete minutes are recommended and the district is advised to have its depository furnish security for funds placed there. In some cases, state reimbursements were not placed first in the general fund before being used.

The report for Freedom Twp. which also no longer exists as a school district but as part of the Gettysburg Area District, asks monthly reports by the treasurer, budgetary adjustments, requirement of bond or collateral for security of school funds, listing of monthly treasurer's reports and more complete minutes.

In Highland Twp. the auditors recommend keeping of cancelled checks and other financial records for not less than six years, the making of budgetary shifts, requirement of bond or collateral for security of school funds, listing of monthly treasurer's reports and more complete minutes.

The report for Straban recommends monthly treasurer's reports, state-required budget adjustments and monthly statements from the depository.

No report for Mt. Joy Twp. was included. Presumably it will appear with the Littlestown Jointure report where it is also a member.

JUDGES DECIDE
TEACHER NEED
NOT BE REHired

ERIE, Pa. (AP) — A panel of Erie County Court judges ruled Tuesday that the Millcreek Twp. School Board does not have to reinstate a teacher fired for refusing to chaperone an extra-curricular bowling class.

In a 2-1 decision, the judges upheld an appeal of the school board to reverse a state Department of Public Instruction order to rehire George Pease.

Pease, a 28-year-old Problems of Democracy teacher, was dismissed last December from his job at McDowell High School.

He appealed to Dr. Charles Boehm, state superintendent of public instruction, who ordered Pease reinstated.

Judges Elmer Evans and Samuel Rossiter handed down an eight-page majority decision. They said the basic legal question was whether the bowling activity related to the school program under the state school code and whether the Millcreek board complied with the code.

Judge Burton Lamb issued a three-page dissenting opinion, arguing that the board did not comply with the code.

Reached in Homer, Alaska, where he is fulfilling a one-year teaching contract, Pease said he is determined to appeal the case to a higher court.

HANOVER SHOE
OPENS SUIT FOR
BIG DAMAGES

SCRANTON—A $5,250,000 trial resulting from charges of monopolistic practices against United Shoe Machinery Corporation began Monday before Federal Judge Michael H. Sheridan.

Lawrence B. Sheppard, chairman of the board of Hanover Shoe Inc., plaintiff in the case, testified for four hours in the first sessions of the treble damage suit stemming from charges of violation of the antitrust laws.

Sheppard testified that his company started a search to get machinery elsewhere than from United Shoe Machinery in the 1920's "and it still continues today." The Hanover firm contends that complicated machines were available on a lease basis only.

SEARCH FAILED

When he was president of the National Shoe Manufacturers' Association from 1935 to 1949, Sheppard said the organization founded a technical committee to check the availability of shoe machinery other than that supplied by United. An expert was sent to Europe to investigate what machinery was available there.

The search failed to reveal machinery equivalent to that of United, Sheppard testified. Various attempts at replacement proved unsatisfactory and had to be discarded.

When asked if the leased machinery from United was best for Hanover Shoe, Sheppard answered "Unquestionably." Two intercompany bulletins found in a search of United's records told of Hanover's attempts to install shoe machinery purchased to replace United's machines.

2 CONTESTS
FOR LTL UNIT

YORK SPRINGS — The Loyal Temperance Legion, the Junior branch of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, of the York Springs unit conducted two speech contests recently.

On Saturday 24 of the Loyal Temperance Union children visited the Adams County Home at Gettysburg to present a program. They presented several musical selections and a speech contest with Ronald Zook being chosen winner. The other contestants were Donna Williams, Anna Weidner, Billy Fetrow and Barbara Decker. The children were taken on a tour of the home and presented each guest there with wall brackets for their rooms. The children had made the brackets of popsicle sticks.

Other special features of the evening included a chalk talk on the hymn, "Let the Lower Lights Be Burning" by Bennie Fadenrecht, duets by Karen and Betty Dehaven and by Dwight and Anna Beth Fadenrecht. There were also instrumental numbers by the Fadenrecht children. Judges for the speech contest were Mrs. Kenneth Heffner, Mrs. Stella Stall-smith and Mrs. Edith Ober.

JUDGES DECIDE
TEACHER NEED
NOT BE REHired

ERIE, Pa. (AP) — A panel of Erie County Court judges ruled Tuesday that the Millcreek Twp. School Board does not have to reinstate a teacher fired for refusing to chaperone an extra-curricular bowling class.

In a 2-1 decision, the judges upheld an appeal of the school board to reverse a state Department of Public Instruction order to rehire George Pease.

Pease, a 28-year-old Problems of Democracy teacher, was dismissed last December from his job at McDowell High School.

JUDGE DISSENTS

Judges Elmer Evans and Samuel Rossiter handed down an eight-page majority decision. They said the basic legal question was whether the bowling activity related to the school program under the state school code and whether the Millcreek board complied with the code.

Judge Burton Lamb issued a three-page dissenting opinion, arguing that the board did not comply with the code.

Reached in Homer, Alaska, where he is fulfilling a one-year teaching contract, Pease said he is determined to appeal the case to a higher court.

41 Traffic Tickets
Are Haunting Youth

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Those traffic tickets Johnny Geetah kept getting came back to haunt him. Police said he had accumulated 41 tickets. They figure he owes the city $2,385.

Johnny received most of the tickets before his 17th birthday. As a juvenile, the court couldn't force him to pay. Last week he was 17 and the judge told him to pay up or go to jail.

Johnny went to jail Tuesday. He'll get $3 credit for each day behind the bars.

HANOVER SHOE
OPENS SUIT FOR BIG DAMAGES

SCRANTON—A $5,250,000 trial resulting from charges of monopolistic practices against United Shoe Machinery Corporation began Monday before federal Judge Michael H. Sheridan.

Lawrence B. Sheppard, chairman of the board of Hanover Shoe Inc., plaintiff in the case, testified for four hours in the first sessions of the treble damage suit stemming from charges of violation of the antitrust laws.

Sheppard testified that his company started a search to get machinery elsewhere than from United Shoe Machinery in the 1920's "and it still continues today." The Hanover firm contends that complicated machines were available on a lease basis only.

SEARCH FAILED
When he was president of the National Shoe Manufacturers' Association from 1945 to 1949, Sheppard said the organization founded a technical committee to check the availability of shoe machinery other than that supplied by United. An expert was sent to Europe to investigate what machinery was available there.

The search failed to reveal machinery equivalent to that of United, Sheppard testified. Various attempts at replacement proved unsatisfactory and had to be discarded.

When asked if the leased machinery from United was best for Hanover Shoe, Sheppard answered "Unquestionably." Two intercompany bulletins found in a search of United's records told of Hanover's attempts to install shoe machinery purchased to replace United's machines.

Similar recommendations are made. The auditors found that the check signer was not an authorized board officer. Instances were cited in which minutes were not signed by the secretary. More complete minutes are recommended and the district is advised to have its depository furnish security for funds placed there. In some cases, state reimbursements were not placed first in the general fund before being used.

The report for Freedom Twp. which also no longer exists as a school district but as part of the Gettysburg Area District, asks monthly reports by the treasurer, budgetary adjustments, requirement of security for deposited school funds and more complete minutes.

In Highland Twp. the auditors recommend keeping of cancelled checks and other financial records for not less than six years, the making of budgetary shifts, requirement of bond or collateral for security of school funds, listing of monthly treasurer's reports and more complete minutes.

The report for Straban recommends monthly treasurer's reports, state-required budget adjustments and monthly statements from the depository.

No report for Mt. Joy Twp. was included. Presumably it will appear with the Littlestown Jointure report where it is also a member.

Confederate Uniforms And

Flags: Harry Rene Lee, adjutant general of the United Confederate veterans, said today "Confederate uniforms and flags will be very much in evidence" at the Blue and Gray reunion at Gettysburg next summer. The Grand Army of the Republic, meeting at Madison, Wisconsin, last week, accepted an invitation for a joint reunion at the famous battlefield but stipulated that "such reunion have in view only the flag of the United States of America."

General Lee declared that stipulation didn't mean a thing to the Gray veterans. "I want it distinctly understood," he said, "that the display of Confederate uniforms and flags will be very much in evidence and that there still exist broadminded soldiers who opposed each other in the open. They are the men who will be at Gettysburg."

Stones Bearing "Prints" Divided: Division of the stones bearing footprints of the prehistoric dinosaurs that were discovered during the summer at Trostle's quarries near York Springs was made Tuesday afternoon at the Highway Engineering and Construction company office east of Gettysburg. Several of the highly-prized stones were turned over to representatives of the Carnegie Technical Institute at Pittsburgh, the National museum at Washington, D. C., the Pennsylvania state museum at Harrisburg and the Gettysburg National military park office. Dr. I. P. Tolmachoff, of Carnegie, was assigned the choicest of the stones, while others bearing prints, fossilized ferns, imprints of raindrops and waves and other markings of special interest to geologists were claimed by Dr. C. W. Gilmore, of the National museum; Dr. Arthur B. Cleaves, state junior geologist and paleontologist, for the state museum, and Dr. Frederick Tilberg of the Gettysburg National park staff. The track-bearing stones were discovered during quarrying activities of the construction company engaged in building battlefield bridges and avenues here.

One hundred and fifty guests

New Oxford, Littlestown, Hanover, Biglerville, Shippensburg, Orrtanna and Gettysburg attended the benefit party held by the women's auxiliary of the Annie M. Warner Hospital at "The Old Mill," summer home of Dr. and Mrs. J. McCrea Dickson, at Knoxlyn Tuesday afternoon. The committee in charge included Mrs. LeRoy Winebrenner, Mrs. Walter Africa, Mrs. Lila Craig, Mrs. Dickson, Mrs. William Hersch, Mrs. Charles H. Huber, Mrs. Gilbert Reen, Mrs. Charles H. Smith, Mrs. Edmund W. Thomas, Mrs. William G. Weaver and Mrs. Bruce N. Wolff. Approximately 150 were present.

Hurts Knee: E. D. Bushman,

Arendtsville merchant, who suffered an injury to his knee on Monday, was able to be around today with the use of crutches. Mr. Bushman was preparing an exhibit at the South Mountain fairgrounds Monday, when he made a misstroke with a hatchet he was using and cut a deep gash in his right knee.

An Entire Herd: A Holstein cow at Peter Poth's dairy, Clarksburg, W. Va., is the mother of an entire herd of calves. She gave birth to six calves nine days ago and all were reported physically perfect today. Another Holstein and a Guernsey are helping out with the feeding problem. Dr. H. O. Henderson, of Morgantown, head of the department of dairy at West Virginia University, said he believed the milk record for the nation. Twin calves are believed to be the most ever born to a cow at one time in Adams County.

Today's Talk

ACCEPTANCE

Disappointment in youth is bitter and biting, perhaps more so than in the middle and later years, but it isn't so poignant and deep.

Youth absorbs, throws off, forgets — because its greatest lessons are yet to be learned. Maturity means, disappointment as an old acquaintance — and acceptance it!

Youth challenges. Age accepts. And if the life has been an unusually busy and full one, then it accepts in nobler mood than ever. The courage of youth is not such an understanding one as in later life. It is more physical than spiritual.

When the heart has been bruised, the mind stripped of many of its illusions, and you treasure the memories of those once beloved though later proved untrue and unworthy, you begin to build among the eternal values and to take the medicine of life, that is bitter at times, without complaining — in full acceptance. This is the sensible, the honest and natural thing to do.

It means a great deal to a man or woman to become familiar with disappointment and loss and to accept them in good heart. Nothing mellow and softens a character more.

Nature, somehow, makes up for all the losses, that constantly appear. And this is the way God does with us all. He makes it easy for us to be big in the big hour, if we have not disappointed Him in the many smaller moments that lead to the larger ones. Nothing but a conscious God within us could make us want to accept when the grave moments of life arrive.

So that acceptance, in the end, is one of the noblest of all the philosophies of the world. And one that only a man could own and live.

DOGS AND MEN

My Dane and terrier day by day
Together dwell in a friendly way.

Side by side down the street they jog,
The mighty Dane and the smaller dog.

Day by day at the garden gate
I've watched them eat from the self-same plate.

Sprawled on the rug by the fire I keep
Dane and terrier snooze and sleep.

No hatred flames in the lives they lead,
From color of coat or differing breed.

So proud is the Dane that he never tries
To take advantage of strength or size.

And I'm sure that the terrier never mocks
The Dane for not having been a fox.

'Tis only men who these traits possess,
So dogs are different from us, I guess.

PRESSURES ON COLLEGE BOARD ARE MOUNTING

By JAMES SAGGUS

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — Contempt of court threats and mounting political pressure caught the State College Board from opposite sides today in the University of Mississippi desegregation crisis.

Board members planned to handle routine affairs of the state colleges in committee meetings on the eve of a regular board session Thursday. A source close to the college board said, however, a called meeting to handle the desegregation problem was possible.

James Meredith, a 29-year-old Kosciusko Negro, remained just across the Tennessee line at Memphis, waiting on his attorneys to advise him when to make the 50-mile trip to Oxford to register as the university's first Negro student.

READY TO ACT

As the showdown neared, the Justice Department won federal court permission at Hattiesburg to launch contempt of court actions if Ole Miss defied a court order directing the acceptance of Meredith as a student.

On the other side, the Mississippi Legislature adopted a resolution praising Gov. Ross Barnett's "fearless and courageous stand." The Senate passed the resolution unanimously and the House by a 130-2 vote.

Barnett urged state officials last week to defy federal court desegregation orders even if it meant jail.

The governor expressed a willingness to go to jail himself, but Board Vice President Dr. Verner Holmes of McComb said the court order did not name Barnett and only board members and university officials would be jailed in the event of contempt.

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — Has American skipper Bus Mosbacher met his match in Australian helmsman Jock Sturrock?

This was a question that stunned Americans and delirious Australians were pondering today after the upset victory by the Australian challenger, Gretel, Tuesday over the American defender Weatherly which knotted the America's Cup series at one race each.

While the Aussies were celebrating American tacticians reviewed the race with a fine-tooth comb and came up with the conclusion that Sturrock, a 46-year-old lumber company executive from Melbourne, is a whale of a match racer. He outmaneuvered the 41-year-old Mosbacher from White Plains, N.Y., on every point of sailing—and Mosbacher has been acclaimed the world's best.

At the start, Sturrock turned Mosbacher's favorite tactic against him by chasing him from behind.

The red-haired American usually is the one to terrorize opponents from astern before the start. This time Sturrock chased Mosbacher downwind away from the starting line, leaving him in a corner. The American skipper had to cross the extreme leeward end of the line, with Sturrock blanketing him from a favorable windward position.

Gretel won the race—a 24-nautical-mile triangular test—by 47 seconds, in the elapsed time of 2 hours 46 minutes 58 seconds. It was the fastest time for a triangular course record, by a 12-meter in an America's Cup race.

Today is a "lay day," a day off from racing requested by the Australians. The third race is scheduled Thursday over a 24-mile windward-leeward course.

WEST ISLIP, N.Y. (AP) — Mark Turco, 10, was reported in fair condition Tuesday although still on the critical list following an operation in which doctors cut off the mangled leg they had sewed back on a week ago.

Mark's left leg dangled from his body by only shreds of tissue after he was struck by a car in front of his Babylon, N.Y., home last Tuesday. Doctors joined the severed bone with a metal pin and sewed together the torn arteries and muscles.

Monday Mark developed a blood infection. To save his life, doctors had to amputate the leg.

Pope John XXIII urged youth to avoid preconceived notions and be tolerant in judging men and events.

In receiving a group of winners in a secondary school catechism competition the Pope said at the Vatican: "Be peaceful men. Be builders of peace. Be ever receptive to the great design of providence."

Braves Tounce Dodgers As Giants Are Idle; Wills Gets His 93rd Stolen Base; Needs 3

By JIM HACKLEMAN
A hot team forced the cooled-off Los Angeles Dodgers to take a backward step in their march toward the National League pennant—but it isn't likely the Dodgers are too upset.

Despite that third straight loss they still have a 3½-game lead over the idle San Francisco Giants. More importantly, that crack in left-hander Johnny Podres' long-aching back apparently isn't serious.

Led by the Aaron boys, the Milwaukee Braves trounced the Dodgers 10-5 Tuesday night. Hank Aaron socked his 40th homer and a double. Younger brother Tommie weighed in with a double and two singles as the Braves won their fifth straight and the seventh in their last eight starts.

SCARE FOR ALLSTON

Podres, who has had chronic back trouble through his nine-season career with the Dodgers, had to leave in the sixth inning when his back stiffened. With his other prize southpaw, strikeout artist Sandy Koufax, on the sidelines with a sore finger and with his relief staff heavily burdened, Los Angeles manager Walt Alston had a bad scare, but he was relieved when Podres' ailment was diagnosed as temporary.

Maury Wills salvaged something out of the setback with his 93rd stolen base. That put the Dodger dash man just three shy of the major league record set by Ty Cobb in the 154-game season of 1915.

Third-place Cincinnati picked up a length in the race by beating out Pittsburgh 7-4 with a three-run uprising in the 10th inning, leaving the Reds 4½ back of the Dodgers and one behind San Francisco.

Houston downed the last-place New York Mets twice, 6-2 and 8-6, and the Chicago Cubs dealt St. Louis its seventh loss in a row, 4-3.

Eddie Kasko delivered Cincinnati's deciding run with a 10th-inning single against Pittsburgh and the Reds added insurance on an error and Frank Robinson's single. Cincinnati forced it into overtime in the ninth on a bases-loaded wild pitch by Jim Gibson.

Robinson's triple and two singles gave him a three-point edge—.343 to .340—over Tommy Davis of the Dodgers in their duel for the batting title.

RECORD FOR METS

The Colts helped the Mets to an unwanted big league record in their second game when Merritt Ranew and rookie Dave Roberts homered. That made 189 homers against Met pitching this season for a new one-season high, breaking by two the previous mark set by Kansas City in 1956.

Houston combined a four-run seventh inning and the six-hit pitching of Ken Johnson for their opening game victory. The Colts' rally came on five singles and an error by Met pitcher Al Jackson.

Rookie Paul Toth chucked the Cards on three hits through eight innings as the Cubs built a 4-1 lead but couldn't finish. He yielded a single to Julian Javier, a homer to Stan Musial and a single to Bill White before giving way with two out in the ninth to Barney Schultz, who retired Ken Boyer on a pop up.

SMITH LEADS AT PINEHURST

PINEHURST, N.C. (AP)—Chun-kye Smith, rated somewhere in the middle of the pack in pretournament favorite ratings, moved into today's double round program of the U.S. Amateur Golf Championship with increased stature.

He has been the hottest player of the first two rounds of the 62nd annual tournament. He's polished off two opponents with the loss of only one hole and has been five under par for 25 holes over the Pinehurst Country Club.

Deegan Happy With Outlook In X-Country

Cross country predictions are hazardous at best since it is relatively easy to build a championship team in a year by picking up three top men who can head the parade across the finish line, garnering the necessary points to take a given meet.

Coach Jim Deegan expects this year's Mt. St. Mary's squad to be better than the flashy 1962 team which lost only to American U. in eight engagements. Deegan will have five top performers and perhaps seven to face a tough schedule which includes a triangular meet with Georgetown and American U. on September 13.

With the entire squad returning, Deegan's hill-and-dalers are hopefully eyeing not only the dual meet schedule, but the Loyola Invitational meet and the conference championships, where last season they took third and second spots respectively. He hopes to improve on both marks this year.

Murphy had a third in the M-D title last season. McKee ran sixth and Keeler 11th. Neidhardt used to run ahead of Murphy in high school and Deegan looks for him to help the squad. Keenews was one of the top two-milers in New York City competition and Landis jogged the third best time over turned in on the Mount course. Sartori was a good 800 performer as a schoolboy, winning the Wakefield Invitation. Deegan expects Clark to show great improvement and bolster the competition for places.

The Mountaineers open with tough Roanoke at home on September 29 (Tues. 7:30 p.m.), at home, October 2 (Tues. 7:30 p.m.), away, on the 17th, Randolph-Macon and Gallaudet on the 27th and Loyola, away, on November 6. Indications are that Bridgewater and Old Dominion College, newest Mason-Dixon member, will provide the conference's toughest competition.

Boosters Club Places Pictures

Large individual photos of members of the Gettysburg High School varsity football squad are being placed this week in display windows of many local business establishments.

The project is an annual affair of the Gettysburg High School Boosters Club as a means of lending support to the athletic activities at the school.

The Boosters Club will sell $1 membership tickets at the Gettysburg-Shippensburg game here on Friday evening. Money raised by the club is used to defray expenses in transporting athletes to and from homes from practices and in many other ways to further athletic programs.

FAVOR USC TO DEFEAT DUKE ON SATURDAY

By HAROLD CLAASSEN

Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—For the past three months it has been homers vs. shutouts; for the past six weeks it has been par vs. birdies. But for the next three months it will be punts vs. passes.

Here is the first batch of college football predictions. There will be more to come but never again will there be a clean slate with which to start.

The picks:
Southern California over Duke.

Each team is the little favorite in its pool. Each team has two quarterbacks. Each team has special reasons for wanting victory in this contest. But the Trojans wind up with one more touchdown.

Texas Christian over Kansas: Sonny Gibbs to engineer another of the upsets that dominates this series.

ARMY FAVORED

Army over Wake Forest: The Cadets, now three teams strong, march to victory over one of the Atlantic Coast Conference's weaker sisters.

Oklahoma over Syracuse: The Sooners have back only two starters from a year ago but don't weep for them. And there no longer is an Ernie Davis at Syracuse.

Washington over Purdue: Charlie Mitchell is as good a back as there is in the country. The Boilermakers have an awesome defense but Mitchell will find the way.

Texas over Oregon: The state of Texas is three times as large as the state of Oregon. By that reasoning, they should have three times as many football players.

STATE OVER NAVY

Missouri over California: Keith Weber, hurt much of last year, comes into his own as the Missouri quarterback.

Penn State over Navy: Dave Robinson heads a defensive aggregation that will scuttle the Sailors.

Alabama over Georgia: Graduation and injuries have changed the Alabama Crimson Tide to a light pink wave but Bear Bryant still directs the team.

Georgia Tech over Clemson: Dave Watson and Rufus Guthrie give the Yellowjackets the best set of guards in the South.

Louisiana State over Texas A&M: Two old powerhouses, each with a new coach, Charles McClendon, new LSU mentor, has the better horses and thus gets the nod.

Oregon State over Iowa State: The rejuvenated Iowans haven't quite opened, despite the presence of Dave Hoppmann, the nation's leading ground gainer of last season.

Maryland over Southern Methodist: Those are mighty big turtles on the Maryland campus this season.

BISON-BULLET GAME 47TH IN LONG SERIES

LEWISBURG — Bucknell opens its 1962 football season Saturday afternoon against Gettysburg and for the first time since 1954 the two longtime rivals will be meeting in the Bisons' Memorial Stadium.

For the past seven years the two teams have appeared under the lights in Hershey Stadium. The game was last played in Gettysburg in 1953. The season opener for both squads, Saturday's game will be the 47th in a series that dates back to 1893.

Bucknell holds a wide 30-14-2 advantage in the rivalry and has won the last three games from the Bullets. The victory margins in the last two games, however, have been only one touchdown, and in both instances Coach Bob Odell's Bisons have had to come from behind in the second half to take home the decision.

Beginning his fifth season at Bucknell, Odell has one of the youngest teams he has had, but also the largest squad. Among the 48 men on the Bison roster are 23 Sophomores and 14 returning lettermen, five of them starters on last year's team.

The Bisons are strongest at the ends where Captain Dick Tyrrell and Rene Clements return to their starting jobs and at quarterback where Ron Giordano and Norm Garrity provide a good one-two punch.

Lettermen Tom Boyd, Dick Orloski and Bill Swineford head a potentially strong guard contingent and 1961 starter George Rieck is back at his center post, but the tackles, halfbacks and fullback suffer from a decided lack of experience.

Slated to join Tyrrell, Clements, Boyd, Orloski and Rieck in the starting line are Junior letterman Jeff Fichter, a converted center, and either converted guard Bill McQuown or sophomore Bob Brown at the tackles.

Giordano may open up in the backfield with Junior Mike Connell and Sophomore Hal Riley at the halfbacks and Junior Joe Elliott at fullback. Moving up from the second unit, Connell has been impressive in early season drills and Riley was the leading ground gainer with the Frosh last fall.

Galimore Leading Rusher First Week

Willie Galimore, fleet halfback of the Chicago Bears, leads the National Football League in rushing after the first week of play with 176 yards on 23 carries against the San Francisco 49ers.

Galimore picked up most of his yardage on two long touchdown romps of 27 and 77 yards in the second half. With Rick Casares grinding out 63 yards up the middle, the Bears' 1-2 punch ranked with the best in the league.

Casares was eighth in rushing. Jimmy Brown, the old dependable of the Cleveland Browns who has won the rushing title five straight years, showed he would be in there again with 134 yards in 17 attempts against the New York Giants. His average of 7.9 was a shade better than Galimore's 7.7. Tom Wilson, Brown's new playmate in the Cleveland backfield added 76 yards, fourth best in the league. Don Perkins of Dallas was third with 93 yards.

Mrs. Ad L. Rice led thoroughbred owners in purses at this year's Monmouth Park meeting with $104,98. Her horses won nine times.

Dave Robinson Lauded By Engle

By DAVE LEHERR

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (AP)—"There may be better ends in the country but there's definitely no better football player."

So spoke Rip Engle, head coach of Penn State's Nittany Lions. His subject—Dave Robinson, a 6-3 giant from Moorestown, N.J., who is being touted as one of State's top prospects for All America honors in 1962.

"Robinson's the finest all-around natural athlete I've ever coached," says Engle. "He could be outstanding at end, guard, tackle or even fullback if we needed him there."

The Lion coach went on to describe the 220-pound Negro as a natural star combining ball-hulk strength with panther-like quick movements.

FAVOR USC TO DEFEAT DUKE ON SATURDAY

By HAROLD CLAASSEN

Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—For the past three months it has been homers vs. shutouts; for the past six weeks it has been par vs. birdies. But for the next three months it will be punts vs. passes.

Here is the first batch of college football predictions. There will be more to come but never again will there be a clean slate with which to start.

The picks:
Southern California over Duke: Each team is the title favorite in its loop. Each team has two quarterbacks. Each team has special reasons for wanting victory in this contest. But the Trojans wind up with one more touchdown.

Texas Christian over Kansas: Sonny Gibbs to engineer another of the upsets that dominates this series.

ARMY FAVORED
Army over Wake Forest: The Cadets, now three teams strong, march to victory over one of the Atlantic Coast Conference's weaker sisters.

Oklahoma over Syracuse: The Sooners have back only two starters from a year ago but don't weep for them. And there no longer is an Ernie Davis at Syracuse.

Washington over Purdue: Charlie Mitchell is as good a back as there is in the country. The Boilermakers have an awesome defense but Mitchell will find the way.

Texas over Oregon: The state of Texas is three times as large as the state of Oregon. By that reasoning, they should have three times as many football players.

STATE OVER NAVY

Missouri over California: Keith Weber, hurt much of last year, comes into his own as the Missouri quarterback.

Penn State over Navy: Dave Robinson heads a defensive aggregation that will scuttle the Sailors.

Alabama over Georgia: Graduation and injuries have changed the Alabama Crimson Tide to a light pink wave but Bear Bryant still directs the team.

Georgia Tech over Clemson: Dave Watson and Rufus Guthrie give the Yellowjackets the best set of guards in the South.

Louisiana State over Texas A&M: Two old powerhouses, each with a new coach. Charles McClendon, new LSU mentor, has the better horses and thus gets the nod.

Oregon State over Iowa State: The rejuvenated Iowans haven't quite enough, despite the presence of Dave Hoppmann, the nation's leading ground gainer of last season.

Maryland over Southern Methodist: Those are mighty big turtles on the Maryland campus this season.

BISON-BULLET GAME 47TH IN LONG SERIES

LEWISBURG — Bucknell opens its 1962 football season Saturday afternoon against Gettysburg and for the first time since 1954 the two longtime rivals will be meeting in the Bisons' Memorial Stadium.

For the past seven years the two teams have appeared under the lights in Hershey Stadium. The game was last played in Gettysburg in 1953. The season opener for both squads, Saturday's game will be the 47th in a series that dates back to 1893.

Bucknell holds a wide 30-14-2 advantage in the rivalry and has won the last three games from the Bisons. The victory margins in the last two games, however, have been only one touchdown, and in both instances Coach Bob Odell's Bisons have had to come from behind in the second half to take home the decision.

Beginning his fifth season at Bucknell, Odell has one of the youngest teams he has had, but also the largest squad. Among the 48 men on the Bisons roster are 23 Sophomores and 14 returning lettermen, five of them starters on last year's team.

The Bisons are strongest at the ends where Captain Dick Tyrrell and Rene Clements return to their starting jobs and at quarterback where Ron Giordano and Norm Garrity provide a good one-two punch.

Lettermen Tom Boyd, Dick Orlovski and Bill Swinford head a potentially strong guard contingent and 1961 starter George Rieu is back at his center post, but the tackles, halfbacks and fullback suffer from a decided lack of experience.

Stated to join Tyrrell, Clements, Boyd, Orlovski and Rieu in the starting line are Junior letterman Jeff Fichter, a converted center, and either converted guard Bill McQuown or Sophomore Bob Brown at the tackles.

Giordano may open up in the backfield with Junior Mike Connell and Sophomore Hal Riley at the halfbacks and Junior Joe Elliott at fullback. Moving up from the second unit, Connell has been impressive in early season drills and Riley was the leading ground gainer with the Frosh last fall.

Galimore Leading Rusher First Week

Willie Galimore, fleet halfback of the Chicago Bears, leads the National Football League in rushing after the first week of play with 176 yards on 23 carries against the San Francisco 49ers.

Galimore picked up most of his yardage on two long touchdowns romps of 27 and 77 yards in the second half With Rick Casares grinding off 68 yards up the middle, the Bears' 1-2 punch ranked with the best in the league. Casares was eighth in rushing.

Jimmy Brown, the old dependable of the Cleveland Browns who has won the rushing title five straight years, showed he would be in there again with 134 yards in 17 attempts against the New York Giants. His average of 7.9 was a shade better than Galimore's 7.7. Tom Wilson, Brown's new playmate in the Cleveland backfield, added 76 yards, fourth best in the league. Don Perkins of Dallas was third with 93 yards.

Mrs. Ad L. Rice led thoroughbred owners in purses at this year's Monmouth Park meeting with $104,98. Her horses won nine times.

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP)—A Lebanese military court imposed 25 death sentences Tuesday in the trial of army officers and politicians for attempting to overthrow the government last New Year's Eve.

HOPPMANN IS BACK IN SLOT AS HALFBACK

Dave (Hoppy) Hoppmann has hopped right back to his old tailback slot at Iowa State and Coach (Clay) Stapleton couldn't be happier.

Most of his glee comes from watching his 176-pound star carry the ball, and Hoppmann has been known to stretch a pigskin probably further than it was ever intended.

Last year, he was the nation's total offense leader with 1,638 yards, or 73 per cent of Iowa State's offense. That was in nine games, for he was forced to sit out the next-to-last game of the season with an ankle injury.

It was with some misgivings that Stapleton switched Hoppmann to quarterback when he scrapped his single wing offense for the winged-T this year. When a narrow 14-7 victory over Drake last Saturday showed that Hoppmann definitely was not at his best at quarterback, Stapleton moved him back to a running halfback slot.

COPE WITH BAKER

Oregon State, led by the versatile Terry Baker, gets the chance this Saturday night in Portland, Ore., to see if Hoppmann is still in his 1961 form. But the Cyclones will have to cope with Baker, another run-or-throw man who owns most of his team's offense. Stapleton had the Cyclones working on pass defense Tuesday, readying them for Baker's aerial dynamics.

Elsewhere Washington's Huskies, who meet Purdue in Seattle, moved Martin Wyatt into the No. 1 right halfback slot and Dave Phillips into the first string right guard position as Coach Jim Owens continued to shake up his team.

Michigan's Frosty Evashevsky, sidelined with an ailing back, re-joined the Wolverines. He missed all of last season with injuries and is expected to add depth to Michigan's quarterbacking spot this year. Wisconsin put Elmar Ezerins at right end, where he will spell Pat Richter on defense, while Co-capt. Steve Underwood took over the No. 1 right guard slot.

Illinois hoping to shed its winless string of a year ago when it begins the season against Washington Sept. 29, now has its two top quarterbacks, Mike Taliaferro and Ron Fearn in top shape, while a critical shortage of ends has cropped up at Minnesota. Last year's Rose Bowl champs have lost John Campbell and Ray Zito through illness and injury for the week and Bob Prawdiz is still out with a knee injury.

TWO MANTLE HOMERS HELP YANKEES WIN

By MIKE RATHET

Associated Press Sports Writer

They're getting down to champagne drinking time in the American League. And the New York Yankees, who've popped a few corks in their day, may have administered the knockout blow to their closest pursuers by slipping them a Mickey.

The Mickey would be Mickey Mantle, the slugger, but still hobbled center fielder of the defending world champion, who tagged Tom Cheney for two homers and drove in five runs as the Yankees whipped Washington 7-1 Tuesday night.

The victory for the Yankees, trying to nail down their 12th flag in 14 years, reduced their magic pennant-clinching number to six over second-place Minnesota.

TWINS, ANGELS SLIP

The Twins lost ground by losing to Detroit 2-1 as Jim Bunning allowed only five hits in eight innings, stranding 11 bas runners and turning back Minnesota four times with the tying run as far as second base.

The third-place Los Angeles Angels continued to stagger, losing their sixth straight, 5-2 to Baltimore, and falling 7 1/2 games back with 10 games remaining. The Yankees and Twins each have nine games to play.

Boston ruined Early Wynn's bid to get his 300th victory, belting him for 12 hits and eight runs in five innings en route to a 10-5 triumph over the Chicago White Sox. Kansas City won its sixth straight, 6-1 over Cleveland.

SOX POUND WYNN

The Orioles got the job done with three runs in the fourth inning after an error by Angels starter Bo Belinsky (9-11) opened the door. Brooks Robinson followed with a double and Dick Williams was hit by a pitch, loading the bases. John Powell drove in two runs with a single, and one out later Marv Breeding knocked in what turned out to be the game-winning run with a single. Chuck Estrada (9-15) won it with ninth-inning relief help from Dick Hall and Billy Hoef.

Winning pitcher Don Schwall (9-15) drove in three runs, as did Gary Geiger, and Frank Malzone chipped in with a two-run homer as the Red Sox pounded Wynn (7-13) and the White Sox.

The A's broke a 1-1 tie in the sixth on doubles by Ed Charles and Wayne Causey before breaking it open with four runs in the eighth. Causey and Gino Cimoli each stroked three hits in support of Dan Pfister (4-13). Jim Perry (11-12) lost it.

Confederate Uniforms And

Flags: Harry Rene Lee, adjutant general of the United Confederate veterans, said today "Confederate uniforms and flags will be very much in evidence" at the Blue and Gray reunion at Gettysburg next summer. The Grand Army of the Republic, meeting at Madison, Wisconsin, last week, accepted an invitation for a joint reunion at the famous battleground but stipulated that "such reunion have in view only the flag of the United States of America." General Lee declared that stipulation didn't mean a thing to the Gray veterans. "I want it distinctly understood," he said, "that the display of Confederate uniforms and flags will be very much in evidence and that there still exist broadminded soldiers who opposed each other in the open. They are the men who will be at Gettysburg."

Stones Bearing "Prints" Divided: Division of the stones bearing footprints of the prehistoric dinosaurs that were discovered during the summer at Trostle's quarries near York Springs was made Tuesday afternoon at the Highway Engineering and Construction company office east of Gettysburg. Several of the highly-prized stones were turned over to representatives of the Carnegie Technical Institute at Pittsburgh, the National Museum at Washington, D. C., the Pennsylvania state museum at Harrisburg and the Gettysburg National military park office. Dr. I. P. Tolmachoff, of Carnegie, was assigned the choicest of the stones, while others bearing prints, fossilized ferns, imprints of raindrops and waves and other markings of special interest to geologists were claimed by Dr. C. W. Gilmore, for the National Museum; Dr. Arthur B. Cleaves, state junior geologist and paleontologist, for the state museum; and Dr. Frederick Tilberg of the Gettysburg National park staff. The track-bearing stones were discovered during quarrying activities of the construction company engaged in building battlefield bridges and avenues here.

One hundred and fifty guests New Oxford, Littlestown, Hanover, Biglerville, Shippensburg, Orrtanna and Gettysburg attended the benefit party held by the women's auxiliary of the Annie M. Warner Hospital at "The Old Mill," summer home of Dr. and Mrs. J. McCrea Dickson, at Knox Tuesday afternoon. The committee in charge included Mrs. LeRoy Winebrenner, Mrs. Walter Africa, Mrs. Lila Craig, Mrs. Dickson, Mrs. William Hersh, Mrs. Charles H. Huber, Mrs. Gilbert Reen, Mrs. Charles H. Smith, Mrs. Edmund W. Thomas, Mrs. William G. Weaver and Mrs. Bruce N. Wolff. Approximately $100 was cleared.

Hurts Knee: E. D. Bushman, Arundelville merchant, who suffered an injury to his knee on Monday, was able to be around today with the use of crutches. Mr. Bushman was preparing an exhibit at the South Mountain fairgrounds Monday, when he made a mistake with a hatchet he was using and cut a deep gash in his right knee.

An Entire Herd: A Holstein cow at Pieter Poth's dairy, Clarksburg, W. Va., is the mother of an entire herd of calves. She gave birth to six calves nine days ago and all were reported physically perfect today. Another Holstein and a Guernsey are helping out with the feeding problem. Dr. H. O. Henderson, of Morgantown, head of the department of dairy science at West Virginia university, said he believed the milk from the cow for the nation. Two calves are believed to be the most ever born to a cow at one time in Adams County.

Today's Talk

Disappointment in youth is bitter and haunting, perhaps more so than in the middle and later years, but it isn't so poignant and deep.

Youth absorbs, throws off, forgets — because its greatest losses are yet to be learned. Maturity meets disappointment as an old acquaintance — and accepts it!

Youth challenges. Age accepts. And if the life has been an unusually busy and full one, then it accepts in modern men than ever. The courage of youth is not such an understanding one as in later life. It is more physical than spiritual.

When the heart has been bruised, the mind stripped of many of its illusions, and you treasure the memories of those once beloved though later proved untrue and unworthy, you begin to build among the eternal values and to take the medicine of life, that is truer at times, without complaining — in full acceptance. This is the sensible, the honest and natural thing to do.

It means a great deal to a man or woman to become familiar with disappointment and loss and to accept them in good heart. Nothing mellow and softens a character more.

Nature, somehow, makes up for all the losses, that constantly appear. And this is the way God does with us all. He makes it easy for us to be big in the big hour, if we have not disappointed him in the many smaller moments that lead to the larger ones. Nothing but a conscious God within us could make us want to accept when the grave moments of life arrive.

So that acceptance, in the end, is one of the noblest of all the philosophies of the world. And one that only a man could own and live.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Yesterday." Protected, 1962, by The George Matthews Adams Service

DOGS AND MEN

My Dane and terrier day by day
Together dwell in a friendly way.

Side by side down the street they jog,
The mighty Dane and the smaller dog.

Day by day at the garden gate
I've watched them eat from the self-same plate.

Sprawled on the rug by the fire I keep
Dane and terrier snooze and sleep.

No hatred flames in the lives they lead,
From color of coat or differing breed.

So proud is the Dane that he never tries
To take advantage of strength or size.

And I'm sure that the terrier never mocks
The Dane for not having been a fox.

'Tis only men who these traits possess,
So dogs are different from us, I guess.

PRESSURES ON

COLLEGE BOARD ARE MOUNTING

By JAMES SAGGUS

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — Contempt of court threats and mounting political pressure caught the State College Board on opposite sides today in the University of Mississippi, desegregation crisis.

Board members planned to handle routine affairs of the state colleges in committee meetings on the eve of a regular board session Thursday. A source close to the college board said, however, a called meeting to handle the desegregation problem was possible.

James Meredith, a 29-year-old Kosciusko Negro, remained just across the Tennessee line at Memphis, waiting on his attorneys to advise him when to make the 50-mile trip to Oxford to register as the university's first Negro student.

READY TO ACT

As the showdown neared, the Justice Department won federal court permission at Hattiesburg to launch contempt of court actions if Ole Miss defied a court order directing the acceptance of Meredith as a student.

On the other side, the Mississippi Legislature adopted a resolution praising Gov. Ross Barnett's "fearless and courageous stand." The Senate passed the resolution unanimously and the House by a 130-2 vote.

Barnett urged state officials last week to defy federal court desegregation orders even if it meant jail.

The governor expressed a willingness to go to jail himself, but board Vice President Dr. Verner Holmes of McComb said the court order did not name Barnett and only board members and university officials would be jailed in the event of contempt.

YACHT CLASSIC WITH BIG UPSET

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — Has American skipper Bus Moshbacher met his match in Australian helmsman Jack Sturrock?

This was a question that stunned Americans and delicious Australians were pondering today after the upset victory by the Australian challenger, Gretel, Tuesday over the American defender Weatherly which knotted the America's Cup series at one race each.

While the Aussies were celebrating American tacticians reviewed the race with a fine-tooth comb and came up with the conclusion that Sturrock, a 46-year-old lumber company executive from Melbourne, is a whale of a match racer. He outmaneuvered the 41-year-old Moshbacher from White Plains, N.Y., on every point of sailing—and Moshbacher has been acclaimed the world's best.

At the start, Sturrock turned Moshbacher's favorite tactic against him by chasing him from behind.

The red-haired American usually is the one to terrorize opponents from astern before the start. This time Sturrock chased Moshbacher downwind away from the starting line, leaving him in a corner. The American skipper had to cross the extreme leeward end of the line, with Sturrock blanketing him from a favorable windward position.

Gretel won the race—a 24-nautical-mile triangular test—by 47 seconds, in the elapsed time of 2 hours 46 minutes 58 seconds. It was the fastest time for a triangular course record, by a 12-meter in an America's Cup race.

Today is a "lay day," a day off from racing requested by the Australians. The third race is scheduled Thursday over a 24-mile windward-leeward course.

Students Find Council Jobs Are No Picnic

The carpus "watch and ward" society at Mt. St. Mary's is the student council which serves as a liaison body for student complaints, opinions, suggestions between the student body and the administration.

Representatives are elected by the respective classes with the president and vice president elected each May by the entire student body from among the senior representatives. Elections are generally fiercely contested over a period of several weeks and climax in a gala parade by the various candidates as they make their last pitch to their fellows.

The purpose of the student governing body is to promote understanding between the student body and the faculty; to unite the spirit and activities of the classes and extra-curricular organizations; to encourage unity and solidarity among the individuals constituting the student body; to offer the students an organ of expression; and to participate in the advancement of the ideals of the college.

HAS ACTIVE ROLE

In practice student council approves all dates for extra-curricular activities such as dances and socials. Special committees handle such diverse functions as the social program with neighboring St. Joseph College and the library program at the Mount. Every area of activity is rightly under Student Council surveillance with an eye to both the improvement of the college program and greater cooperation on the part of the students themselves.

Members of the council have found that student government is no one-way street. As a result the job is a demanding one, frequently thankless and full of headaches. Often Student Council must step on groups or individuals for hampering activities of neighboring communities on student conduct. It works closely with the deans of discipline and studies serving as a sounding board for suggestions for the good of the school whether they originate with the faculty or the students.

Since the Student Council is only as good as the men who make it up, class members wisely elect representatives who will further the best interests of all concerned. Edward J. Kuhn Jr., West Reading, Pa., is council president and Joseph J. Wayne, Girardville, Pa., vice president.

Legal Society Aids Prospective Lawyers

Prospective lawyers can familiarize themselves with the entrance requirements of the various law schools and the general procedures of law practice through membership in the Legal Society at Mount St. Mary's.

The group holds regular informal monthly meetings plus special assemblies at which appear eminent lawyers and various law school officials.

The society also participates with its fellow clubs on campus in a number of social events, including dances, movies, field trips to surrounding state capitals and to the nation's capital.

Sons Of Erin Has Active Membership

One could expect that the "Sons Of Erin" would stir up a lively fuss on campus at one time or another, and the Mountaineer Irish brigade manages just that on frequent occasions.

The purpose of the club is to familiarize its members with Ireland's part in history, culture and world developments. The Sons subscribe to Irish papers and periodicals, and makes these available to the membership. They also sponsor lectures which give an insight into Irish opinion, both past and present, and monthly movies which present a vivid picture of contemporary Ireland.

Socially the Sons leave their impact on campus also. Annually they sponsor a weekend featuring a variety show and dance. They also hold an annual Field Day in which classes compete against one another for trophies in track and field events.

The August dinner dance drew a record 204 persons.

Also included in the program was the address of Rt. Rev. Msgr. Mrs. Giordano received the Saint Louise de Marillac Medal from Saint Joseph College in 1962 for her outstanding contribution in the field of charity.

Mr. Meredith is a graduate of Fairmont State College, W. Va., and the West Virginia University. He presently is working towards his doctorate at the University of Maryland.

James J. Thomas, assistant professor of chemistry, spent nine weeks at Pennsylvania State University in the study of polymer chemistry. Mr. Thomas is a graduate of the Mount and Penn State.

This is the fourth study grant that he has received. In 1959, he studied at Ohio University; 1960, at New York University; and 1961, at the University of North Carolina.

While recommending against Type III vaccine for adults, the Health Service did urge using it for immunization programs for preschool and school-age children, and recommended continued use of Types I and II for everyone. Several states decided against continued use of Type III vaccine, but other state and local officials adopted a wait-and-see attitude.

DUTCH LEAVE NEW GUINEA

HOLLANDIA, West New Guinea (AP) — The Dutch are pulling out as fast as they can from West New Guinea — their last colonial territory of the once great Dutch East Indies.

There is no panic, but they leave with a mixture of emotions — deep regret, sadness, relief and some bitterness.

As one Dutch trader said: "We knew we had to leave sooner or later. But it is always sad when you are actually faced with leaving. Our role in this part of the world has been played out. We have reached the end of the road."

This tropical territory astride the equator with most of its 161,000 square miles consisting of dense jungles, coastal swamps and undeveloped lands, will be transferred from the Netherlands to a U.N. administration for a seven-month interim period Oct. 1. Next May 1 Indonesia takes over.

Native Papuans in the central highlands of this California-sized territory still live in the stone age and have little or no contact with white men.

Takes pennies only.

Volkswagen Truck owners tell us maintenance usually runs them half the cost of their other trucks.

For example, the VW Truck doesn't need anti-freeze. Or flushing. Or draining. Or hoses. Or hose connections. (The engine's air-cooled.)

The VW Truck hardly ever needs oil between changes. It gets 35,000 miles and more on a set of tires. (20,000 is thought good on most other trucks in our class.)

Even VW's big boxy shape is economical. Because you can tote 1,000 lbs. of whatever it is you tote and still have 800 lbs. left over.

(The VW's capacity, 1,830 lbs.) Loading and unloading is economical and fast, too, through the 4-foot-wide hole-in-the-side.

Then, there's the gas. Suppose you drive your VW 2,000 miles a month, and saved 2¢ a mile. (Which isn't at all unusual from what VW Truck owners tell us.) That's $40 a month to the good. Or $480 a year. Or $1,440 in three years. (Just on gas alone.)

That's a lot of pennies.

Report JFK Once Wed A Divorcee Branded As A Mistake By 2 Publications

WASHINGTON (AP)—A story whispered for more than a year that President Kennedy once secretly married a divorcee has been labeled groundless by two publications.

The rumor was based on an unsupported passage in a genealogy book.

As it has in the past the White House declined comment but to citizens who write to the White House about the rumor, this reply is mailed: "The President has been married only once—to his wife Jacqueline Kennedy."

In this week's edition, Newsweek magazine explores the long-circulated rumor. The Washington Post, which owns Newsweek, published the article in advance Monday. Both publications branded the rumor baseless.

TRACED TO BOOK

The Associated Press and other news organizations have checked many sources over the months and never found substantiation for the report of a previous marriage.

The report developed from a passage in a privately printed family history—"The Blauvelt Family Genealogy"—written by a member of the family's 10th generation, Louis L. Blauvelt, who died at 82 two years before the book was published in 1957.

In tracing the family tree of the Blauvelts—who came to this country from Holland in 1638—one entry in the book under the 11th generation says:

CITES MARRIAGE

"Durie, (Kerr), Malcolm, (Isabel O. Cooper). We have no birth date. She was born Kerr but took the name of her stepfather. They first married in 1898. In 1900 they were divorced. Durie then married F. John Bersbach. They were divorced and she married third, John F. Kennedy, son of Joseph P. Kennedy, one-time ambassador to England. There were no children of the second or third marriages."

The genealogy adds that a daughter was born of the marriage to Desloge.

Newsweek said that in Blauvelt's records, now in the care of his daughter, Mrs. William K. Smith of East Orange, N.J., there is no substantiation for the Kennedy marriage reference in the genealogy.

"COLOSSAL MISTAKE" "Under the entry for the alleged marriage to John F. Kennedy there is only an old clipping from a Miami gossip column, reporting Miss Malcolm and young Jack Kennedy had been seen in a restaurant right after World War II."

"One Blauvelt in-law described the entry to Newsweek as 'just one colossal mistake.' He said: 'It was likely that the old man formed the idea in his head, seeing that clipping, and the family hadn't had anyone that famous for a long time.'"

INFORMAL RESEARCH Reached by The Associated Press, Raymond D. Blauvelt of Ridgefield Park, N.J., once secretary of the Blauvelt Family Association, said Louis Blauvelt had rather informal research techniques, kept much of the information in his head or on bits of papers and often relied on hearsay passed from one family member to another.

Mrs. Smith's husband, William, told The Associated Press there is only one notation concerning the alleged Kennedy marriage in the records of Louis Blauvelt.

This, he said, is a typed index card containing substantially the same entry as contained in the book.

NO LETTER IN FILES On the bottom of the card, said Smith, is a date apparently referring to a letter received by author which concerned information concerning the marriage entry.

Is Acquitted In Election Law Case

EBENSBURG, Pa. (AP)—William Joseph, 36, council president of Franklin Borough, has been acquitted of charges of violating state election laws.

A Cambria County jury returned the verdict Tuesday night. Joseph was ordered to pay court costs. In his testimony Joseph admitted telling Mrs. Ann Bizjak of Franklin to mark absentee ballots in last May's primary election, in the name of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Palasik, also of Franklin. He said the Palasiks gave him the ballot, and asked him to "fix them up."

The Palasiks testified Monday that they did not see the ballots or ask Joseph to mark them.

Smith said there is no such letter in the files. Smith said a year ago, at the request of White House press secretary Pierre Salinger, he sent Salinger a letter attesting to the complete absence of any original source material to back up the entry.

Smith said his father-in-law kept careful records, though he made some mistakes.

Newsweek said there were other errors in the paragraph in question. Miss Malcolm's maiden name was not spelled Malcolm as in the book; and she first married Bersbach, then Desloge, not vice versa.

"HATE GROUPS" Newsweek said what it called "hate groups" and others kept circulating the marriage story, putting the President "into a position where he is damned if he denies the story and damned if he doesn't."

Miss Malcolm's present husband is socialite Thomas Shelvin of Palm Beach and Newport. They were married in 1947. She was not available for comment but Newsweek said that in private she has denied the marriage rumor.

The story first reached a national audience Sept. 2 when Parade, a Sunday supplement magazine, printed a letter from a reader asking if the story of the Kennedy secret marriage was true. Parade said it was not.

Conversation Piece

"What can I serve that will be fancy, yet different and take only a minimum amount of time and effort to prepare?" These Canadian-style Bacon Stacks are a clever answer to your needs. Slices of the bacon are covered with pineapple rings, with sweet potato mounds, then topped off with marshmallows and baked.

Your dinner main dish can be a conversation piece to interest the family. For instance, some day soon introduce them to Canadian-style Bacon Stacks.

To prepare the Canadian-style Bacon Stacks which, incidentally, are fancy enough for a luncheon for the girls too, purchase slices of the meat cut 1/2 inch thick. Allow 1 slice per serving.

For 6 servings you will need one 1 pound 7 ounce can of sirup-packed sweet potatoes. Mash the sweet potatoes and season with 1/2 teaspoon of salt and 1/4 teaspoon of pepper.

Next, place 6 slices of Canadian-style bacon in a shallow pan. Dot each slice of bacon with 1 teaspoon of butter or margarine and sprinkle with 1 teaspoon of brown sugar.

On each slice of Canadian-style bacon arrange a ring of pineapple. Again top the pineapple with 1 teaspoon of butter or margarine and 1 teaspoon of brown sugar.

Next, add the mashed sweet potatoes. Make a mound of the sweet potatoes allowing about 1/4 cup per serving. Again sprinkle each serving with 1 teaspoon of sugar and dot with 1 teaspoon of butter or margarine. Lastly, top each with a marshmallow. Bake the Canadian-style Bacon Stacks in a slow oven, 300 degrees F., for 45 minutes or until done.

1 can (16 ounces) sliced pineapple

Students Find Council Jobs Are No Picnic

The campus "watch and ward" society at Mt. St. Mary's is the student council which serves as a liaison body for student complaints, opinions, suggestions between the student body and the administration.

Representatives are elected by the respective classes with the president and vice president elected each May by the entire student body from among the senior representatives. Elections are generally fiercely contested over a period of several weeks and climax in a gala parade by the various candidates as they make their last pitch to their fellows.

The purpose of the student governing body is to promote understanding between the student body and the faculty to unite the spirit and activities of the classes and extra-curricular organizations, to encourage unity and solidarity among the individuals constituting the student body, to offer the students an organ of expression, and to participate in the advancement of the ideals of the college.

HAS ACTIVE ROLE

In practice student council approves all dates for extra-curricular activities such as dances and socials. Special committees handle such diverse functions as the social program with neighboring St. Joseph College and the library program at the Mount. Every area of activity is rightly under Student Council surveillance with an eye to both the improvement of the college program and greater cooperation on the part of the students themselves.

Members of the council have found that student government is no one-way street. As a result the job is a demanding one, frequently thankless and full of headaches. Often Student Council must step on groups or individuals for hampering activities of neighboring communities on student conduct. It works closely with the deans of discipline and studies serving as a sounding board for suggestions for the good of the school whether they originate with the faculty or the students.

Since the Student Council is only as good as the men who make it up, class members wisely elect representatives who will further the best interests of all concerned.

Edward J. Kuhn Jr., West Reading, Pa., is council president and Joseph J. Wayne, Girardville, Pa., vice president.

NUTMEG CLUB

The Nutmeg Club offers all students from the state of Connecticut a chance to provide an effective social outlet to foster amicable relations among the members, to act as a unit providing harmonious relationships between the members and the Connecticut

Legal Society Aids Prospective Lawyers

Prospective lawyers can familiarize themselves with the entrance requirements of the various law schools and the general procedures of law practice through membership in the Legal Society at Mount St. Mary's.

The group holds regular informal monthly meetings plus special assemblies at which appear eminent lawyers and various law school officials.

The society also participates with its fellow clubs on campus in a number of social events, including dances, movies, field trips to surrounding state capitals and to the nation's capital.

Sons Of Erin Has Active Membership

One could expect that the "Sons Of Erin" would stir up a lively fuss on campus at one time or another, and the Mountaineer Irish brigade manages just that on frequent occasions.

The purpose of the club is to familiarize its members with Ireland's part in history, culture and world developments. The Sons subscribe to Irish papers and periodicals, and makes these available to the membership. They also sponsor lectures which give an insight into Irish opinion, both past and present, and monthly movies which present a vivid picture of contemporary Ireland.

Socially the Sons leave their impact on campus also. Annually they sponsor a weekend featuring a variety show and dance. They also hold an annual Field Day in which classes compete against one another for trophies in track and field events.

Sr. Margaret Flinton Speaks To Convention

Sister Margaret Flinton, D.U., head of the Modern Language Department at Saint Joseph College, has returned to Emmitsburg after participating in the national Ladies of Charity convention in Atlantic City, N. J. The meeting was held by the Ladies of Charity in conjunction with the national St. Vincent de Paul Society and the National Conference of Catholic Charities.

Sister Margaret spoke to the large assembly on the topic, "Saint Louise Faces the Challenge of Modern Times." Saint Louise, proclaimed the Patron Saint of Social Work, founded with St. Vincent de Paul the religious order of the Daughters of Charity of St. Vincent de Paul, who conducted the National Alumni Association, to promote and encourage a spirit of friendly cooperation among the members in assisting them toward the solution of their mutual or individual problems and to promote interest in the ideals of Mount Saint Mary's College in the Nutmeg Club, on the college campus, and throughout the state of Connecticut. The August dinner dance drew a record 204 persons.

Faculty Busy With Projects During Summer

Three members of the Science Department of the Mount studied at special summer institutes with the aid of National Science Foundation grants.

John W. Richards, Ph.D., professor of physics, spent 10 weeks at the University of Maryland in duct Saint Joseph College in Emmitsburg.

Also included in the program was the address of Rt. Rev. Msgr. George Higgins, of the National Catholic Welfare Conference, the director of social action and the presentation of Mrs. Amedeo Giordano on the increasing role of the volunteer in the personal service of charity.

Mrs. Giordano received the Saint Louise de Matillac Medal from Saint Joseph College in 1962 for her outstanding contribution in the field of charity.

Mr. Meredith is a graduate of Fairmont State College, W. Va., and the West Virginia University. He presently is working towards his doctorate at the University of Maryland.

SAYS USHS ACT ON VACCINE IS UNWARRANTED

NEW YORK (AP) — Dr. Albert B. Sabin Tuesday described as unwarranted the U.S. Health Service recommendation that Type III oral polio vaccine be withheld from adults.

Sabin, originator of the vaccine, said the recommendation "must not be allowed to interfere with community programs which are our only hope for complete elimination of polio."

Arriving from England on the liner Queen Mary, Sabin told newsmen.

"The decision is based on a small number of coincidental polio-type illnesses, with no proof in any one of these cases that the Type III vaccine has been responsible for any one of the cases reported."

II POLIO CASES

The Health Service made its recommendation Saturday against adult use of Type III Sabin vaccine after announcing that 11 confirmed cases of Type III polio provided sufficient evidence "to

Commits Suicide While Wife Shops

LEWISBURG, Pa. (AP) — The body of J. Donald Johnson, about 39, was found in the basement of his home Monday, the victim of a self-inflicted rifle shot.

Johnson's body was discovered by a neighbor, who had been asked by the victim's wife to help search for him. Mrs. Johnson had been shopping and was unable to find her husband when she returned home.

Dr. J. Preston Hoyle, Lewisburg, deputy Union County coroner, said Johnson died about 10:30 a.m. His body was found about an hour later, a rifle beside him. Neighbors reported that Johnson, retired, had been in poor health.

indicate that at least some of these cases have been caused by Type III vaccines."

While recommending against Type III vaccine for adults, the Health Service did urge using it for immunization programs for preschool and school-age children, and recommended continued use of Types I and II for everyone.

Several states decided against continued use of Type III vaccine, but other state and local officials adopted a wait-and-see attitude.

DUTCH LEAVE NEW GUINEA

HOLLANDIA, West New Guinea (AP) — The Dutch are pulling out as fast as they can from West New Guinea — their last colonial territory of the once great Dutch East Indies.

There is no panic, but they leave with a mixture of emotions — deep regret, sadness, relief and some bitterness.

As one Dutch trader said: "We knew we had to leave sooner or later. But it is always sad when you are actually faced with leaving. Our role in this part of the world has been played out. We have reached the end of the road."

This tropical territory astride the equator with most of its 161,000 square miles consisting of dense jungles, coastal swamps and undeveloped lands, will be transferred from the Netherlands to a U.N. administration for a seven-month interim period Oct. 1. Next May 1 Indonesia takes over.

Native Papuans in the central highlands of this California-sized territory still live in the stone age and have little or no contact with white men.

Takes pennies only.

Volkswagen Truck owners tell us maintenance usually runs them half the cost of their other trucks. For example, the VW Truck doesn't need anti-freeze. Or flushing. Or draining. Or hoses. Or hose connections. (The engine's air-cooled.)

The VW Truck hardly ever needs oil between changes. It gets 35,000 miles and more on a set of tires (20,000 is thought good on most other trucks in our class.)

Even VW's big boxy shape is economical. Because you can tote 1,000 lbs. of whatever it is you tote and still have 800 lbs. left over.

(The VW's capacity 1,830 lbs.) Loading and unloading is economical and fast, too, through the 4-foot-wide hole-in-the-side.

Then, there's the gas. Suppose you drove your VW 2,000 miles a month, and saved 24 a mile. (Which isn't at all unusual from what VW Truck owners tell us.) That's $40 a month to the good. Or $480 a year. Or $1,440 in three years. (Just on gas alone.)

That's a lot of pennies.

DISQUALIFIES HIMSELF FROM COURT ACTION

NEW YORK (AP) — A federal judge has disqualified himself from hearing motions in an anti-trust price-fixing case because he owns stock in one of the four defendant firms—Bethlehem Steel Corp.

But the judge, Archie O. Dawson, got some solace, perhaps, and his courtroom spectators got a good laugh Monday—when Bethlehem attorney Bruce Bromley added to the jurist and advised: "Don't sell that Bethlehem stock your honor. It's going to get better."

Dawson had been scheduled to hear the motions by the defendants—four steel companies, five executives and a trade association—that they be permitted to plead no-contest to the charges against them. Such a plea, if allowed, permits imposition of a penalty without being an admission of guilt.

SEEK NEW JUDGE

It was agreed to present the motions Sept. 28 to Chief U. S. District Judge Sylvester J. Ryan for a hearing or assignment to another jurist.

Defendants in the antitrust indictment, besides Bethlehem, include the manager and assistant manager—Erb Gurney and Robert S. Barnes, respectively—of the firm's sales, forgings, castings and special products divisions.

Other defendants are Erie Forge and Steel Corp. and the firm's board chairman, Emil Lang, and its president, Homer Lackey; United States Steel Corp.; Midvale-Heppenstall Co. and its president, R. B. Heppenstall Sr.; and the Open Die Forging Institute, Inc., a trade association.

When John Crow of the St. Louis Cardinals eleven threw a wobbly pass covering 15 yards, teammate Bobby Conrad called it a knuckleball.

A North Viet Nam news agency report from Hanoi asserted North Vietnamese troops in Laos were being withdrawn under terms of the Geneva agreement setting up a neutral Laos.

EARLE LABELS DILWORTH'S DENIAL A LIE

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Former Gov. George H. Earle says Richardson Dilworth, the Democratic gubernatorial candidate, lied when he denied being forced to resign the post of deputy attorney general in 1935.

Earle said Tuesday he personally fired Dilworth from the only state job he ever held for neglect of duty because Dilworth went to New York to represent the state in a lawsuit and disappeared.

Earle said Dilworth later turned up in Cuba, but "what happened to him is something I prefer not to discuss."

ALLOWED TO QUIT

Later, Earle said, he withdrew the dismissal order and allowed Dilworth to resign to avoid "possible ruin of his career."

A Democrat while in office, Earle is now a Republican.

His statement drew an immediate denial from Dilworth, who said Earle was "completely wrong."

"He is undoubtedly motivated by a bitter resentment of the fact that I represented his wife in divorce proceedings against him," the former Philadelphia mayor said.

JUDGE CONTRADICTS

Gerald F. Flood, now a state Superior Court judge but who in 1935 was Dilworth's boss, said that Earle is wrong.

"That is not in accordance with my recollection," said Flood when told of Earle's statement. "As far as I'm concerned he (Dilworth) resigned."

Flood said that if Dilworth was fired he (Flood) was never informed of it.

Congressman William W. Scranton, the Republican candidate for governor, was the first to charge—during the candidates' radio-TV debate Monday night—that Dilworth had been fired.

ANOTHER ATTACK

After the debate, Dilworth said he had resigned because he had a busy law practice and had gained from the job some experience.

Earle was the second person Tuesday to question one of Dilworth's Monday night statements.

A vice president of the Harvard Business School Club of Philadelphia said Dilworth erred when he quoted a club report as saying "Philadelphia was the favorite city of business because it has the best political climate."

The vice president, E. Brooke Lee Jr., Tuesday called on Dilworth to retract or document the statement, made during the debate.

ISRAEL SEEKS HELP FROM U.S.

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Israeli Foreign Minister Golda Meir says that Israel and the Arab states which surround it will some day "sit around the table and negotiate" and that the Arabs' "constant preparation for the destruction of Israel is not realistic."

Addressing the 48th national convention of Hadassah, the Women's Zionist Organization of America, Tuesday night, Mrs. Meir said that the key to Israel's problems is "Arab acceptance of men."

the fact that Israel is there and will remain."

Earlier, convention delegates asked the United States to move to insure stability in the Middle East.

Quoting a statement by President Gamal Abdel Nasser of Egypt that his country is producing long range missiles to destroy Israel, the Hadassah resolution urged the United States to convince the Arab nations that aggression in the Middle East will not be permitted.

PRESIDENT'S SISTER ILL FOR TWENTY YEARS

NEW YORK (AP) — President Kennedy's sister, Rosemary, 43, retarded from childhood, was placed 20 years ago in a Catholic institution specializing in the care of such cases, and is still there, her sister has disclosed.

Eunice Kennedy Shriver, wife of Peace Corps Director Sargent Shriver, wrote in the Saturday Evening Post's Sept. 22 issue about the heartbreak her family suffered with her retarded older sister.

In 1941, the article said, the family returned to the United States from London, where Joseph P. Kennedy, the President's father, had served as American ambassador. At that time, it said, Rosemary Kennedy was not making progress but seemed instead to be going backward.

DID NOT IMPROVE
The author explained: "At 22 she was becoming increasingly irritable and difficult. She became sadder and talked less. Her memory and concentration and her judgment were declining."

"My mother took Rosemary to psychologists and to dozens of doctors. All of them said her condition would not get better and that she would be far happier in an institution, where competition was far less and where our numerous activities would not endanger her health."

"My mother found an excellent Catholic institution that specializes in the care of retarded children and adults. Rosemary is there now, living with others of her capacity."

Due to the absence of the president, Mrs. Marian Sloat, vice president and secretary of Spiritual Life, opened the meeting with Scripture reading from I Cor. 13 and Luke 10. The theme of the lesson was "Brotherhood" and "Teaching Our Children of Other Races."

Plans were made for a food sale in the church hall on October 12. Places were made also for a rummage and food sale to be held at the GAR room, Gettysburg on November 12.

Refreshments and a social hour followed. Plans were outlined for a Halloween party to be held on October 12 by the Friendly Circle Class of the Methodist Sunday School at its September meeting held recently with Mrs. Betty Donaldson at her home on the Orrtanna-Fairfield Rd. Prizes will be given and the public is invited. Places were also made to boil apple butter on October 20.

The Scripture reading was given by the hostess from the 31st Psalm. The guess box was won by Phyllis Flenner. The meeting closed with the Mizpah benediction. Refreshments and a social hour followed.

Dorsey Lochbaum, R. D., was among those who attended the York Fair Saturday and visited his aunt and cousins, Mrs. Sally Lochbaum and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Lochbaum, Dover. ARBITRATORS WILL RULE ON RAIL STRIKE

CHICAGO (AP) — The Chicago & North Western Railway has tentatively accepted President Kennedy's proposal to let arbitrators hand down a ruling on the 19-day Midwest rail strike.

The President also proposed that wheels on the 10,600-mile rail network in nine states begin rolling immediately.

In Washington, G. E. Leighty, president of the Order of Railroad Telegraphers, said the union will study the plan.

Kennedy wired both sides Monday night from Newport, R. I., telling them there was "no excuse for a continued stalemate."

Kennedy proposed that an independent three-man board give its ruling within 10 days, with the ruling binding on both sides.

The plan would limit the arbitrators to considering the "question of the proper application" of recommendations announced June 14 by the presidential emergency board.

HOLD FOUR FOR BURNING OF NEGRO CHURCH

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Three white men and a white teen-ager are being held in the burning of a Negro church in a racially troubled southwest Georgia town.

Authorities said they admitted talking about Negro church burnings and "just decided to burn them one. They were captured by FBI agents.

Solution of the case was announced by the Justice Department in Washington Monday night, highlighting racial developments in which government representatives played a considerable part.

OTHER DEVELOPMENTS

Among them were:

The federal government asked a federal court at Richmond, Va., to outlaw racial discrimination at public schools attended by children of a big Army base in Virginia.

A federal appeals court in Richmond ruled against Charles E. Williams' pupil placement plan for elementary pupils.

A Justice Department spokesman said a few U.S. marshals will accompany James H. Merriam, a 29-year-old Negro, when he returns to the University of Mississippi in the next few days.

TO LOCAL AUTHORITIES

Sheniff Z. T. Matthews of Terrell County, Ga., said the four white persons held in jail at Dawson on arson charges admitted setting fire to the Negro High Hope Baptist church three miles north of Dawson in the early morning on Monday.

He identified them as Glenn Roland, 35, his son Melvin Earl Roland, 21, Marvin Allen Miller, 31, and a 16-year-old whose name was withheld in accordance with Georgia juvenile laws.

The quartet was spotted in a car near the church after the fire, the FBI said. Later they were picked up by agents who have been investigating these other churches burned to the ground in recent weeks and the firing of shots into several Negro homes.

FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover said his agents questioned the four persons and then turned them over to Georgia authorities because there was no evidence of federal violations.

LONG DEADLOCK

The break in the long deadlock over the bill—it passed the House in January and the Senate in February—came in these actions:

1. The Senate agreed to accept construction grants for private colleges but the use to which they could be put was closely restricted.

2. The House agreed to convert to student loans the funds provided in the Senate bill for scholarships.

3. The House agreed to accept the Senate allotments for junior colleges but again the use was restricted.

EDUCATION AID: BILL REVIVED IN CONFERENCE

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Senate House conference has breathed new life into a $2.5-billion college education aid bill after some of its strongest partisans had abandoned hope for it.

The conferees reached their agreement late Monday on the only piece of legislation in President Kennedy's broad education package given any chance of reaching his desk before Congress quits.

The final compromise does not contain all the President asked, but it was closer to the Senate bill than to the more limited House measure.

ONLY FORMALITY

The conferees still must meet today to sign their report. Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., and Rep. Edith Green, D-Ore., headlining the respective delegations, said this was just a formality.

There was a possibility of floor fights on the compromise, particularly in the House. But Mrs. Green said she was confident of bipartisan support in the showdown. The House conferees approved the final product 6 to 1. The Senate group voted 7 to 3 for it.

GAS heat filters the air, so your home stays cleaner longer

Practically all new homes built today are Gas heated, because Gas heat is clean heat. Most of the dirt in your home is brought in—on shoes, on clothes, through the air which enters when doors are opened. A forced air Gas heating system helps get rid of dirt—by circulating the warm air through filters several times every hour.

There is no dirt from Gas heat. That's why your walls, draperies and furniture stay clean longer than with unfiltered heating systems.

If your home is heated with modern, automatic Gas equipment, you have the best heating system you can buy! And, when you buy or build a new home, make sure it has modern Gas heat.

What's more, it's easy to convert your forced air Gas heating system to summer comfort cooling—just add on a Gas Air Conditioning unit to your present Gas heating system. Enjoy year-round, "whole-house comfort" with GAS!

PRESIDENT'S SISTER ILL FOR TWENTY YEARS

NEW YORK (AP)—President Kennedy's sister, Rosemary, 43, retarded from childhood, was placed 20 years ago in a Catholic institution specializing in the care of such cases, and is still there, her sister has disclosed.

Eunice Kennedy Shriver, wife of Peace Corps Director Sargent Shriver, wrote in the Saturday Evening Post's Sept. 22 issue about the heartbreak her family suffered with her retarded older sister.

In 1941, the article said, the family returned to the United States from London, where Joseph P. Kennedy, the President's father, had served as American ambassador. At that time, it said, Rosemary Kennedy was not making progress but seemed instead to be going backward.

DID NOT IMPROVE

The author explained: "At 22 she was becoming increasingly irritable and difficult. She became sullen and talked less. Her memory and concentration and her judgment were declining."

"My mother took Rosemary to psychologists and to dozens of doctors. All of them said her condition would not get better and that she would be far happier in an institution, where competition was far less and where our numerous activities would not endanger her health."

"My mother found an excellent Catholic institution that specializes in the care of retarded children and adults. Rosemary is there now, living with others of her capacity."

LONG DEADLOCK

The break in the long deadlock over the bill—it passed the House in January and the Senate in February—came in these actions:

1. The Senate agreed to accept construction grants for private colleges but the use to which they could be put was closely restricted.

2. The House agreed to convert to student loans the funds provided in the Senate bill for scholarships.

3. The House agreed to accept the Senate allotments for junior colleges but again the use was restricted.

DISQUALIFIES HIMSELF FROM COURT ACTION

NEW YORK (AP) — A federal judge has disqualified himself from hearing motions in an anti-trust price-fixing case because he owns stock in one of the four defendant firms—Bethlehem Steel Corp.

But the judge, Archie O. Dawson, got some solace, perhaps, and his courtroom spectators got a good laugh Monday—when Bethlehem attorney Bruce Bromley nodded to the jurist and advised: "Don't sell that Bethlehem stock your honor. It's going to get better."

Dawson had been scheduled to hear the motions by the defendants—four steel companies, five executives and a trade association—that they be permitted to plead no-contest to the charges against them. Such a plea, if allowed, permits imposition of a penalty without being an admission of guilt.

SEEK NEW JUDGE

It was agreed to present the motions Sept. 28 to Chief U. S. District Judge Sylvester J. Ryan for a hearing or assignment to another jurist.

Defendants in the anti-trust indictment, besides Bethlehem, include the manager and assistant manager—Erb Gurney and Robert S. Barnes, respectively—of the firm's sales, forgings, castings and special products divisions.

Other defendants are Erie Forge and Steel Corp. and the firm's board chairman, Emil Lang, and its president, Homer Lackey; United States Steel Corp.; Midvale-Heppinstall Co. and its president, R. B. Heppinstall Sr.; and the Open Die Forging Institute, Inc., a trade association.

TOKYO (AP)—North Viet Nam denied, Tuesday that any of its troops are moving from Laos to bolster Red guerrillas in South Viet Nam.

EARLE LABELS DILWORTH'S DENIAL A LIE

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Former Gov. George H. Earle says Richardson Dilworth, the Democratic gubernatorial candidate, lied when he denied being forced to resign the post of deputy attorney general in 1935.

Earle said Tuesday he personally fired Dilworth from the only state job he ever held for neglect of duty because Dilworth went to New York to represent the state in a lawsuit and disappeared.

Earle said Dilworth later turned up in Cuba, but "what happened to him is something I prefer not to discuss."

ALLOWED TO QUIT

Later, Earle said, he withdrew the dismissal order and allowed Dilworth to resign to avoid "possible ruin of his career."

A Democrat while in office, Earle is now a Republican.

His statement drew an immediate denial from Dilworth, who said Earle was "completely wrong."

"He is undoubtedly motivated by a bitter resentment of the fact that I represented his wife in divorce proceedings against him," the former Philadelphia mayor said.

JUDGE CONTRADICTS

Gerald F. Flood, now a state Superior Court judge but who in 1935 was Dilworth's boss, said that Earle is wrong.

"That is not in accordance with my recollection," said Flood when told of Earle's statement. "As far as I'm concerned he (Dilworth) resigned."

Flood said that if Dilworth was fired he (Flood) was never informed of it.

Congressman William W. Scranton, the Republican candidate for governor, was the first to charge—during the candidates' radio-TV debate Monday night—that Dilworth had been fired.

ANOTHER ATTACK

After the debate, Dilworth said he had resigned because he had a busy law practice and had gained from the job some experience.

Earle was the second person Tuesday to question one of Dilworth's Monday night statements.

A vice president of the Harvard Business School Club of Philadelphia said Dilworth erred when he quoted a club report as saying "Philadelphia was the favorite city of business because it has the best political climate."

The vice president, E. Brooke Lee Jr., Tuesday called on Dilworth to retract or document the statement, made during the debate.

ISRAEL SEEKS HELP FROM U.S.

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Israeli Foreign Minister Golda Meir says that Israel and the Arab states which surround it will some day "sit around the table and negotiate" and that the Arabs' "constant preparation for the destruction of Israel is not realistic."

Addressing the 48th national convention of Hadassah, the Women's Zionist Organization of America, Tuesday night, Mrs. Meir said that the key to Israel's problems is "Arab acceptance of the fact that Israel is there and will remain."

Earlier, convention delegates asked the United States to move to insure stability in the Middle East.

Quoting a statement by President Gamal Abdel Nasser of Egypt that his country is producing long range missiles to destroy Israel, the Hadassah resolution urged the United States to convince the Arab nations that aggression in the Middle East will not be permitted.

TWO CHURCHES STUDY PLANS FOR UNIFYING

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Evangelical United Brethren Church began discussions here today on a proposed internal merger while the United Church of Christ completed plans for a consolidation effective next Jan. 1.

The EUB proposes to join its eastern and northeastern Pennsylvania conferences. The plan will be discussed during a three-day meeting concluding Thursday.

The United Church of Christ Tuesday completed plans for merging its Mercersburg and Lancaster Synods, parts of the Central Pennsylvania and Susquehanna Synods and six congregational churches. The consolidation plan, affecting 80,000 members of 230 congregations, follows county lines.

FOLLOWS MERGER

Formation of the new Penn Central Conference of the church is an outgrowth of the merger of the Evangelical and Reformed Church with the Congregational-Christian Church, effected in 1957. The new conference of the United Church of Christ adopted an initial budget of $147,100 for 1963 and decided to locate its headquarters at the Pennsylvania Council of Churches building here.

Elected officers of the new conference, effective next Jan. 1:

NEW OFFICERS

President—The Rev. James W. Moyer of Carlisle, president of the Mercersburg Synod.
Secretary—The Rev. W. Miller Price, pastor of the Annville Christian Church.
Treasurer—Clyde Gabel, member of St. John's United Church

Check Payments For Paper Mileage

DOYLESTOWN, Pa. (AP) — Bucks County Solicitor Samuel Gray says he'll have to check the facts before taking any action to recover sums paid sheriff Harold W. Dando for auto mileage.

The county commissioners Tuesday directed Gray to recover sums which three Democratic attorneys have said Dando charged the county for "paper mileage."

The attorneys, in a letter to Dist. Atty Paul R. Beckert, said the sheriff's mileage reports were based on one trip for each piece of county business instead of actual mileage.

Beckert ruled last week the payments were "in part improper." He said, however, he could find no evidence of criminal intent.

CLARK STAND ON CHINA CITED

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — U.S. Sen. Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa., "digressed from the truth" when he denied favoring admission of Red China to the United Nations, says a Republican Congressman.

James E. Van Zandt, a GOP candidate for the U.S. Senate seat to which Clark is seeking re-election, said.

Clark, Harrisburg, Pa., said he was not a member of the Northumberland County Common Pleas Court.

Assistant moderator — Mrs. George Bricker, member of St. Peter's Church, Lancaster, and a vice president of the National Women's Guild of the United Church of Christ.

Moderator — William I. Troutman, a former congressman and now a judge of the Northumberland County Common Pleas Court.

Assistant moderator — Mrs. George Bricker, member of St. Peter's Church, Lancaster, and a vice president of the National Women's Guild of the United Church of Christ.

BALLET STAR IS HAPPY IN PRIVATE LIFE

By JOY MILLER
AP Women's Editor

NEW YORK (AP) — She's the star of the Bolshoi Ballet, and audiences go wild over her.

Her private life makes her just as happy. Married to a talented young composer for five years, she can't imagine what could make them quarrel.

What's there left for her to wish for?

WANTS SOMETHING NEW

And she wants something new, something that's never been performed before, created for her.

Undoubtedly the first will happen in time. Why can't her husband, Rodion Shchedrin, bring about the second?

"My husband can write excellent music, but I cannot find a libretto."

She explained their happy relationship: "If he were a partner, for instance, there would always be something—such as, he didn't hold me up properly. This way— he composes and I dance — we complement each other."

USUALLY TOGETHER

They're together most of the time. In the Soviet Union he's with her in the theater or at their home outside Moscow. Here in New York, where the ballet company is appearing before starting a cross-country tour, the couple can be found most late afternoons sitting unnoticed in their hotel bar.

Speaking at a Republican rally in northeast Philadelphia Tuesday night, Van Zandt said a vote for Clark "is a vote for an appeaser of Red China."

The Altoona congressman said Clark denied last June that he advocated recognition of Red China or its admission to the U. N.

The denial, Van Zandt said, contradicted a press statement made by Clark in 1960.

In that statement, according to Van Zandt, Clark said "I propose that Red China be offered recognition and other concessions if she agrees to end her truculence and consent to disarmament."

Dust Is Blamed For Big Explosion

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Firemen today blamed dust in a huge storage bin for the explosion Tuesday which ripped a South Philadelphia sugar refinery, injuring seven men.

The blast shattered windows and sent flash fires roaring the length of the eight-story, block-long structure near the river front.

Of the seven injured, three were admitted to a hospital with burns. All were reported satisfactory. The others were treated for minor cuts and burns.

CALL TEENERS TO TESTIFY IN MURDER TRIAL

WILKES-BARRE, Pa. (AP) — Additional teenage friends of Jean Volkonis were summoned to testify today at the trial of William Lewis, an AWOL Marine accused of murder in the 14-year-old girl's death.

Three teenagers took the stand Tuesday night to testify about a party the Volkonis girl attended the night of last July 13.

That was the night, the prosecution charges, she plunged to her death over a cliff in nearby Plymouth Township while fleeing Lewis' advances in the dark.

Judge Bernard C. Brominski ordered a night session in his Luzerne County courtroom after jurors spent the whole afternoon visiting the scene where Jean's body was found.

Among those testifying was Ann Klinetob, of Suffern, N.Y., a former resident of West Nanticoke.

Miss Klinetob said she and the Volkonis girl and two boys were having a beer party in the Klinetob's vacant house when Lewis and four of his friends broke in.

She said Lewis later chased the Volkonis girl outside after he and his companions were told the police were coming. The Volkonis girl was not seen again, she said.

A government statement distributed by the official Soviet news agency Tass said the urgency of the situation has been heightened by French President Charles de Gaulle's recent visit with West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer.

The army command asserted the rebellion had been put down, but there was no evidence of this.

The cavalry corps and the strong Campo de Mayo garrison near Buenos Aires, advocating early elections and constitutional government, told President Jose Maria Guido to choose between them and the army high command.

The rebellious officers remained strongly entrenched at the powerful Campo de Mayo base, backed by tanks.

They charge that the army command, which thrust Guido into the presidency early this year, wants to impose a military dictatorship.

ALGERIA'S 1ST CAMPAIGN IS ENDING TODAY

By MICHAEL GOLDSMITH
ALGIER (AP) — Independent

Algeria's first election campaign ends today amid chaos, tension and general apathy.

There is no doubt over the result in Thursday's elections: all the 196 candidates for the National Assembly—including 16 Europeans—are unopposed.

They were handpicked by Ahmed Ben Bella's ruling Political Bureau with the support of the regular army of Col Houari Boumedienne, and will give Ben Bella an overwhelming majority in the assembly.

TO BE PATCHY

In eastern and western Algeria and in the Sahara, all under Boumedienne's firm control, a good turnout is expected from voters accustomed to being marched to the polls under French rule.

In the central Algerian areas controlled by the mutinous guerrillas of Wilaya (region) 4, voting is likely to be patchy.

The Political Bureau accused the Wilaya 4 commanders of sabotaging the elections in their districts by forcing voters to abstain and dispersing election meetings at gunpoint.

Wilaya 4 is angry over the removal of most of its officers from the list of candidates and openly accused Ben Bella of instituting a dictatorship.

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet government declared Tuesday that because of alleged collusion between France and West Germany there is an imperative need for a German peace treaty that would solve the Berlin problem.

HONOLULU (AP) — A drought is ruining the 1962 and 1963 sugar crops on Hawaii Island, 200 miles southeast of Honolulu.

The Hawaiian Sugar Planters Association estimates 1962 losses at more than $2.5 million and says that the 1963 losses will be greater because next year's cane is being harvested now before it is completely destroyed.

Since a rainstorm April 2, 1961, produced 20 inches of water overnight, the island's northern areas have been virtually dry.

Why "Good-Time" Charlie Suffers Uneasy Bladder

Unwise eating or drinking may be a source of mild, but annoying bladder irritations—making you feel restless, tense, and uncomfortable. And if restless nights, with nagging backache, headache or muscular aches and pains due to over-excitation, strain or emotional upset, are adding to your misery—don't wait—try Doan's Pills.

Doan's Pills act 3 ways for speedy relief. 1—They have a soothing effect on bladder irritations. 2—A fast pain-relieving action on nagging backache, headaches, muscular aches and pains. 3—A wonderfully mild diuretic action thru the kidneys, tending to increase the output of the 15 miles of kidney tubes. So, get the same happy relief millions have enjoyed for over 60 years.

(AP) — A Greyhound bus driver from Philadelphia was found guilty Wednesday night of charges of speeding by Judge Ernest Sever in Municipal Court here. Sever said he would withhold sentencing of the driver, Leo C. Schroder 25, pending the outcome of an appeal to the Burlington County Court. Attorneys for Schroder said they would appeal. Schroder was arrested July 31 by state trooper Richard Miller as the New York-to-Philadelphia bus passed through the township on the New Jersey Turnpike. Miller, who was on the bus posing as a passenger, charged that the driver was traveling 67.66 miles an hour. The speed limit is 60 miles an hour. Defense lawyers Leonard Spear of Philadelphia and Florence Steel of Burlington accused Miller of inaccuracy in computing the speed—using a stop-watch, speed-chart and mile markers along the road-way. WOMAN SHOT BY HUSBAND IS CRITICAL LEBANON, Pa. (AP) — A 61-year-old woman remained in critical condition at Good Samaritan Hospital today with bullet wounds inflicted by her estranged husband who then killed himself. Mrs. Helen Nelson was shot down on a Lebanon Street corner Tuesday by her husband, Alfred, 69, despite her pleas for mercy, police said. Richard Mease, about 35, also of Lebanon, narrowly escaped death or injury when he went to the victim's aid. Nelson pointed his gun at Mease and pulled the trigger but the weapon misfired, the bullet jamming in the barrel. WAITED IN AUTO Nelson then jumped into his car, sped home and shot himself with a German Luger. The jammed pistol used to shoot his wife was found on a kitchen table. Dist. Atty. Alvin B. Lewis Jr. said Mrs. Nelson had left her husband, a retired railroader, last Aug. 5 and moved into an apartment. He said Nelson was waiting in his auto at Pershing and Park Avenues for his wife to return home from her factory job. 100 Residents Are Routed By Blaze UPPER DARBY, Pa. (AP) — A two-alarm fire broke out in the basement of the Minerva Court Apartments Tuesday night, forcing more than 100 residents to flee. They returned to their apartments late. The blaze was discovered when all the lights went out in the building. Firemen said flames apparently had severed power lines. Fire Chief James Bateman of Upper Darby said the fire was confined to the basement, where tenants of the 80 apartments have storage lockers. The cause of the fire was not determined. Negro To Run For Attorney General SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP) — New York Democrats have selected a Negro to run for attorney general, a milestone in New York politics. It is the highest post to which a Negro has been nominated by either major political party in New York State. The man is Edward R. Dudley, 51-year-old Manhattan borough president, former judge of the New York City Domestic Relations Court and onetime U.S. ambassador to Liberia. HARRISBURG (AP) — The State Liquor Control Board Tuesday ordered the suspension of the following liquor license for the reason it cited: Effective Sept. 19, York County—B. P. O. E. Hanover Lodge No. 763, Hanover, 10 days; maintained gambling devices. LONDON (AP) — A gasoline shortage hit thousands of Londoners on their way to work Monday. The shortage is due to a series of lightning strikes by drivers and loaders of gasoline tank trucks seeking wage increases.

TWO CHURCHES STUDY PLANS FOR UNIFYING

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Evangelical United Brethren Church began discussions here today on a proposed internal merger while the United Church of Christ completed plans for a consolidation effective next Jan. 1.

The EUB proposes to join its eastern and northeastern Pennsylvania conferences. The plan will be discussed during a three-day meeting concluding Thursday.

The United Church of Christ Tuesday completed plans for merging its Mercersburg and Lancaster Synods, parts of the Central Pennsylvania and Susquehanna Synods and six Congregational-Christian churches. The consolidation plan, affecting 80,000 members of 280 congregations, follows county lines.

FOLLOWS MERGER

Formation of the new Penn Central Conference of the church is an outgrowth of the merger of the Evangelical and Reformed Church with the Congregational-Christian Church, effected in 1957.

The new conference of the United Church of Christ adopted an initial budget of $147,100 for 1963 and decided to locate its headquarters at the Pennsylvania Council of Churches building here.

Elected officers of the new conference, effective next Jan. 1:

NEW OFFICERS

President—The Rev. James W. Moyer of Carlisle, president of the Mercersburg Synod.

Secretary—The Rev. W. Miller Price, pastor of the Annville Christ Church.

Check Payments For Paper Mileage

DOYLESTOWN, Pa. (AP) — Bucks County Solicitor Samuel Gray says he'll have to check the facts before taking any action to recover sums paid sheriff Harold W. Dando for auto mileage.

The county commissioners Tuesday directed Gray to recover sums which three Democratic attorneys have said Dando charged the county for "paper mileage."

The attorneys, in a letter to Dist. Atty. Paul R. Beckert, said the sheriff's mileage reports were based on one trip for each piece of county business instead of actual mileage.

Beckert ruled last week the payments were "in part improper." He said, however, he could find no evidence of criminal intent.

CLARK STAND ON CHINA CITED

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — U.S. Sen. Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa., "digressed from the truth" when he denied favoring admission of Red China to the United Nations, says a Republican Congressman.

James E. Van Zandt, a GOP candidate for the U.S. Senate seat to which Clark is seeking re-election, charged Clark with "digressing from the truth" when he denied favoring admission of Red China to the United Nations.

Clark, a Democrat, is now a judge of the Northumberland County Common Pleas Court.

Assistant moderator — Mrs. George Bricker, member of St. Peter's Church, Lancaster, and a vice president of the National Women's Guild of the United Church of Christ.

Moderator — William I. Troutman, a former congressman and now a judge of the Northumberland County Common Pleas Court.

BALLET STAR IS HAPPY IN PRIVATE LIFE

By JOY MILLER
AP Women's Editor

NEW YORK (AP) — She's the star of the Bolshoi Ballet, and audiences go wild over her.

Her private life makes her just as happy. Married to a talented young composer for five years, she can't imagine what could make them quarrel.

What's there left for her to wish for?

WANTS SOMETHING NEW

And she wants something new, something that's never been performed before, created for her.

Undoubtedly the first will happen in time. Why can't her husband, Rodion Shchedrin, bring about the second?

"My husband can write excellent music, but I cannot find a libretto."

She explained their happy relationship: "If he were a partner, for instance, there would always be something—such as, he didn't hold me up properly. This way—he composes and I dance—we complement each other."

USUALLY TOGETHER

Dust Is Blamed For Big Explosion

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Firemen today blamed dust in a huge storage bin for the explosion Tuesday which ripped a South Philadelphia sugar refinery, injuring seven men.

The blast shattered windows and sent flash fires roaring the length of the eight-story, block-long structure near the river front.

Of the seven injured, three were admitted to a hospital with burns. All were reported satisfactory. The others were treated for minor cuts and burns.

CALL TEENERS TO TESTIFY IN MURDER TRIAL

WILKES-BARRE, Pa. (AP) — Additional teenage friends of Jean Volukonis were summoned to testify today at the trial of William Lewis, an AWOL Marine accused of murder in the 14-year-old girl's death.

Three teenagers took the stand Tuesday night to testify about a party the Volukonis girl attended the night of last July 13.

That was the night, the prosecution charges, she plunged to her death over a cliff in nearby Plymouth Township while fleeing Lewis' advances in the dark.

Judge Bernard C. Brominski ordered a night session in his Luzerne County courtroom after jurors spent the whole afternoon visiting the scene where Jean's body was found.

Among those testifying was Ann Klinefelter, of Suffern, N.Y., a former resident of West Nanticoke, Miss Klinefelter said she and the girl were drinking beer.

She has plenty of family around. Her two brothers are dancers in the company, and her uncle is the famous choreographer and ballet master Asaf Messerer. She comes from a well known theatrical family and her mother, a motion picture actress, is still active in Moscow.

Maya Plisetskaya, who's been dancing since she was 9, dazzled audiences with regal beauty, incredible grace and dramatic intensity. But away from the stage she has a placid, well-scrubbed look that bears out her reputation for being one of the most even-tempered in the business.

ALGERIA'S 1ST CAMPAIGN IS ENDING TODAY

By MICHAEL GOLDSMITH
ALGIERS (AP) — Independent Algeria's first election campaign ends today amid chaos, tension and general apathy.

There is no doubt over the result in Thursday's elections: all the 196 candidates for the National Assembly—including 16 Europeans—are unopposed.

They were handpicked by Ahmed Ben Bella's ruling Political Bureau with the support of the regular army of Col. Houari Boumedienne, and will give Ben Bella an overwhelming majority in the assembly.

In eastern and western Algeria and in the Sahara, all under Boumedienne's firm control, a good turnout is expected from voters accustomed to being marched to the polls under French rule.

In the central Algerian areas controlled by the mutinous guerrillas of Wilaya (region) 4, voting is likely to be patchy.

The Political Bureau accused the Wilaya 4 commanders of sabotaging the elections in their districts by forcing voters to abstain and dispersing election meetings at gunpoint.

Wilaya 4 is angry over the removal of most of its officers from the list of candidates and openly accused Ben Bella of instituting a dictatorship.

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet government declared Tuesday that because of alleged collusion between France and West Germany there is an imperative need for a German peace treaty that would solve the Berlin problem.

A government statement distributed by the official Soviet news agency Tass said the urgency of the situation has been heightened by French President Charles de Gaulle's recent visit with West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer.

ARMY FACTION KEEPS ITS GRIP

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP) — A powerful army faction which revolted against Argentina's military leaders demanded today a speedy return of government to the people.

The army command asserted the rebellion had been put down, but there was no evidence of this.

The cavalry corps and the strong Campo de Mayo garrison near Buenos Aires, advocating early elections and constitutional government, told President Jose Maria Guido to choose between them and the army high command.

The rebellious officers remained strongly entrenched at the powerful Campo de Mayo base, backed by tanks.

They charge that the army command, which thrust Guido into the presidency early this year, wants to impose a military dictatorship.

PALENCIA, Spain (AP) — Gen. Francisco Franco inaugurated Monday a $200-million agricultural program designed to relieve the alternate drought and flood damage in four provinces of northeastern Spain.

TOKYO (AP) — Japanese scientists made a survey around Christmas and Johnston islands where the United States conducted nuclear tests and reported Monday they found no dangerous radioactivity in the area.

WON'T RAISE DUES

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — David J. McDonald, president of the United Steelworkers of America, says there are no plans to increase dues despite $4 million less in its treasury than a year ago.

McDonald told a news conference Tuesday that means of raising funds were being studied by the Finance Committee.

HONOLULU (AP) — A drought is ruining the 1962 and 1963 sugar crops on Hawaii Island, 200 miles southeast of Honolulu.

The Hawaiian Sugar Planters Association estimates 1962 losses at more than $2.5 million and says that the 1963 losses will be greater because next year's cane is being harvested now before it is completely destroyed.

Since a rainstorm April 2, 1961, produced 20 inches of water overnight, the island's northern areas have been virtually dry.

Water Shortage Rules Showers Out

LANSDALE, Pa. (AP) — School officials enforced a ruling Tuesday eliminating showers after gym classes for students at North Penn High School because of a critical water shortage.

Students participating in extra-curricular athletics are permitted to take showers, however, because such use is not until late afternoon when industrial water demands have been completed, officials said.

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia (AP) — Agriculture shortcomings including lagging production and lack of mechanization, are being discussed throughout the country under auspices of the Communist Party Central Committee, the official news agency CTK reported Monday.

MORGENTHAU RUNS AGAINST ROCKEFELLER

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP)—New York Democrats, long racked by internal feuds, chose Robert M. Morgenthau at a chaotic state convention early Tuesday as their gubernatorial nominee.

Morgenthau, former U.S. attorney in New York City and the soft-spoken son of a famous Democrat, was nominated unanimously over four rivals on the second ballot to oppose Republican Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller in the November election.

Veteran Democrats called the strife-torn convention session one of the most unruly in the party's history. It threatened to aggravate wounds still unhealed after the party's divisive convention four years ago.

TUMULT ERUPTS

Despite the support of the most powerful Democratic leaders in the state, Morgenthau, a newcomer to politics, fell seven votes short of winning the nomination on the first ballot.

A shouting, brawling tumult followed during which his backers sought to start an immediate second call of the roll while his opponents for the nomination tried in vain to recess the convention until later Tuesday.

His nomination was made unanimous on the second ballot when it became clear he had picked up more than enough strength to win.

Morgenthau's closest rival, Queens Dist. Atty. Frank D. O'Connor, received 375 first-ballot votes.

BACKED BY WAGNER

Morgenthau, 43, son of Henry Morgenthau Jr., secretary of the treasury under President Franklin D. Roosevelt, had the support of Mayor Robert F. Wagner of New York City, former Gov. Herbert Lehman and Rep. Charles A. Buckley, veteran Bronx leader.

He reportedly had the backing also of the Kennedy administration, but publicly Washington Democrats kept hands off the bitter state struggle.

Republicans, whose state convention opened in quiet harmony in Buffalo today, quickly capitalized on the Democrats' strife.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

WITH THE opening of the new Student Union building and Sheridan Hall dormitory to house 200 resident students, Mount St. Mary's greets its 1962-1963 student body by offering them the most comprehensive facilities in the 155-year history of the College and Seminary. Plans are also being drawn for the new $1 million Science Hall, construction of which will begin in 1963. With its expansion so close to completion, the Mount will still maintain its small college status, firm in the belief that individualized instruction is best accomplished in an atmosphere of close contact between faculty and students.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

ON THIS occasion last year our former president committed to us, the faculty and students of Saint Joseph College, the task of "coming to grips with our oppressor." No one is ignorant of the tactics of this enemy whose weapons are more spiritual than material. Because of this there is great reason to fear, but also because of this we have even greater reason to hope. Our battleground is within ourselves, and our Captain is Jesus Christ.

We look forward to this new year as one full of promise. The vistas ahead reveal the burgeoning of hope. Is not that which has been promised about to stir the enemy with an uneasy fear? What nation is not looking with eager expectancy toward the Vatican Council? What religious body, Catholic or otherwise, is not cognizant of the potentialities of this history-making event? What individual Catholic is not joyously awaiting the feast of Mary's Maternity, when Hope will once more spring forth from the womb of the Church?

Students of Saint Joseph College, take up your arms! You were made for heroism, not for pleasure. Put aside for the time the things of earth and "put ye on the armor of Jesus Christ." This is no idle call. The Holy Father himself has asked this of all Christians in immediate preparation for the opening of the Council. War has been declared, but neither H-bombs nor space weapons nor giants of the earth, sea, or air will avail against this enemy. We must meet him on his own grounds, soul battling soul. But we shall have the advantage only if and when we put on the armor of selfless giving, only if and when we have the courage to take up in good earnest the weapons of prayer and penance. This is the moment that will mark the fulfillment of the promise of our Captain: "The gates of Hell shall not prevail" against you.

Father Gommar DePauw Will Attend Ecumenical Council As Theological Advisor To Bishop Blaise Kurz, O.F.M.

Father Gommar A. DePauw, J.C.D., dean of studies and professor of moral and fundamental dogmatic theology at Mount St. Mary's Seminary, with the permission of the Most Rev. Lawrence J. Shehan, D.D., archbishop of Baltimore, has been selected by the Most Rev. Blaise S. Kurz, O.F.M., D.D., apostolic prefect of Yungchow, China, as his attendant theologian at the Ecumenical Council, opening at the Vatican on October 11.

Fr. DePauw will advise Bishop Kurz on Council matters dealing with theology and canon law. All members of the hierarchy attending the Council customarily choose renowned and expert scholars in these fields to aid them in making decisions on the subjects under consideration.

A native of Stekene, East Flanders, Belgium, Father DePauw has had an unusual and varied career. At the age of 17 he graduated magna cum laude from the Catholic College of Saint Nicholas-Waas and entered the diocesan seminary of Ghent for his philosophical and theological studies. At the outbreak of World War II, he fought with the 9th Belgian Infantry Regiment in the campaigns of Belgium, Holland and France, where at the Battle of Dunkirk he was taken prisoner.

ESCAPE FROM PRISON

After escaping from prison camp, he returned to the seminary. Upon completion of his theological studies, he was, by indult of the Holy See, ordained to the priesthood at the age of 23. Following a temporary assignment as subregent and professor at Saint Nicholas College, he was sent for three years of postgraduate studies to the Catholic University of Louvain. Besides the regular course of study for the Doctorate in Canon Law, he also followed there a three-year course in moral theology and church history, and a one-year course in international law and archaeology.

He took part in the liberation of Northern Belgium and Southern Holland in 1944-1945 with the Belgian Underground Army and the First Free Polish Armored Division.

While continuing research work in the field of European church-state relations, he was appointed assistant pastor and moderator of the Catholic Workers' Organiza-

Unique Organization

Unique among Mount St. Mary's campus organizations is Council 1965 of the Knights of Columbus, founded in 1919, the first council to be organized on a college campus. It still ranks as one of the few college councils in the United States. Aside from its name, however, the K of C council remains completely independent of the college.

During the year the campus Council sponsors a series of social events including dances, jazz etc., to complement the organization's fraternal activities.

In the past the Knights have also carried on organization activities through a series of broadcasts on significant topics over local radio stations with the scripts written and presented by council members.

High spots of the calendar, of course, are the degree activities, especially the colorful and exciting third degree with regard to which Knights are pledged to secrecy.

Father Gommarr DePauw Will Attend Ecumenical Council As Theological Advisor To Bishop Blaise Kurz, O.F.M.

Father Gommarr A. DePauw, J.C.D., dean of studies and professor of moral and fundamental dogmatic theology at Mount St. Mary's Seminary, with the permission of the Most Rev. Lawrence J. Shehan, D.D., archbishop of Baltimore, has been selected by the Most Rev. Blaise S. Kurz, O.F.M., D.D., apostolic prefect of Yungchow, China, as his attendant theologian at the Ecumenical Council, opening at the Vatican on October 11.

Fr. DePauw will advise Bishop Kurz on Council matters dealing with theology and canon law. All members of the hierarchy attending the Council customarily choose renowned and expert scholars in these fields to aid them in making decisions on the subjects under consideration.

A native of Stekene, East Flanders, Belgium, Father DePauw has had an unusual and varied career. At the age of 17 he graduated magna cum laude from the Catholic College of Saint Nicholas-Waas and entered the diocesan seminary of Ghent for his philosophical and theological studies. At the outbreak of World War II, he fought with the 9th Belgian Infantry Regiment in the campaigns of Belgium, Holland and France, where at the Battle of Dunkirk he was taken prisoner.

ESCAPE FROM PRISON

After escaping from prison camp he returned to the seminary. Upon completion of his theological studies, he was, by indult of the Holy See, ordained to the priesthood at the age of 23. Following a temporary assignment as subregent and professor at Saint Nicholas College, he was sent for three years of postgraduate studies to the Catholic University of Louvain. Besides the regular course of study for the doctorate in Canon Law, he also followed there a three-year course in moral theology and church history, and a one-year course in international law and archaeology.

He took part in the liberation of Northern Belgium and Southern Holland in 1944-1945 with the Belgian Underground Army and the First Free Polish Armored Division.

While continuing research work in the field of European church-state relations, he was appointed assistant pastor and moderator of the Catholic Workers' Organiza-

Teachers Will Participate In Ford Foundation Study Of Chinese, Indian Culture

Two Mount St. Mary's teachers and two from St. Joseph College are among participants from six area colleges in a two-year Ford Foundation grant of $180,000 for a cooperative faculty study program in Chinese and Indian culture.

Dr. John L. Morrison, chairman of the History Department, and Dr. Robert Marshall, chairman of the Classics Department, will represent Mount St. Mary's in the Chinese study which began this summer and will continue through the year. Dr. Adolph Wasilifsky, chairman of the English Department, and Dr. Gilbert Oddo, associate professor of social studies, will represent St. Joseph College.

Next year Dr. John J. Dillon

DR. A. M. WASILIFSKY

to Mount St. Mary's and St. Joseph's. Dr. Morrison will serve as liaison officer for Mount St. Mary's.

The China part of the program is under the general direction of Wing-tsit Chan of Dartmouth College. Dr. Chan was born in China and received his undergraduate education at the missionary university of Lingnan in Canton. He received his doctorate from Harvard and returned to Lingnan as dean. From there he went, via the University of Hawaii, to Dartmouth, where he is professor of Chinese culture and philosophy.

Dr. Chan is the author of a number of books on the history, religion and philosophy of China, a few of which can be seen in the general bibliography which he produced for the program. He is also a contributor to many other volumes, and the translator of a number of Chinese texts. In addition to this scholarly work he had found time to serve on a number of committees and international institutes. The program is very fortunate to have such a well-qualified person to serve in this capacity.

FIRST SEMINAR

The first of the seminars will take place at Gettysburg College this fall, September 23-29, 1962, and will be led by Dr. Chan. Other seminar leaders include, besides Dr. Chan who will lead several of them, Professor George B. Cressey of Syracuse, Professor C. K. Yang, of Pittsburgh, Professor James R. Hightower, and Professor John W. H. Lindbeck, of Harvard, and Professor Harold C. Hinton of Trinity College, and others. Announcements of the time and place of those parts of the seminars which are open to the public will be made in the local papers.

The participants from the other colleges, and their fields of study are: Donald W. Flaherty of Dickinson, political science; H. Wade Seaford Jr., of Dickinson, anthropology; John Roger Stemen of Gettysburg, history; Glendon F. Collier of Gettysburg, languages; Mary E. Randolph of Hood, art; Francis Hugo of Hood, psychology, and Reuben S. Holtzhouse of Western Maryland, philosophy.

The program calls for the training of interested faculty members in the cultures of China and India, with one part of the program being devoted to each. Each part of the program will entail three stages.

SUMMER READING

The first of these will be a summer of reading from an extensive list of general background books. Such reading will serve to give all the participants something of a common background.

The second part of the program

government, anthropology, geography, philosophy and literature. Specialized bibliographies will be furnished the participants well in advance of the seminars, and, as they will be teaching only half time, they will be able to make preparation for these seminars.

The third part of the program will take place during the following summer when the participants will study at some of the graduate centers either in this country or abroad.

LONG PLANNING

This program is one of the results of the long-range planning which has engaged the faculty and administration of the various institutions over a two-year period.

The first concrete step was a meeting called by former President Paul on October 26, 1960. At this meeting the representatives of the various colleges shared his concern for a broadening of the scope of a liberal arts education, and approved the appointment of a faculty committee to suggest means of implementing this concern.

The faculty members who took part in the discussion which followed included: James Carson and Donald Flaherty of Dickinson; Bruce Boenau and Norman Richardson of Gettysburg; Jack C. Davis of Hood; John Morrison of Mt. Saint Mary's; Gilbert Oddo and Mariemmi Wanek of Saint Joseph, and Ralph Price of Western Maryland.

VISITING EXPERTS

With the cooperation of Ward

Morehouse educational director of The Asia Society, a number of experts in this field visited the six campuses during the next year and met with the committee. The visiting experts were: Wingsit Chan of Dartmouth; William T. deBary of Columbia; Robert Crane of Michigan (now of Duke), and Kenneth Morgan of Colgate.

A tentative program was drawn up and exploratory conversations were initiated with John Everton of The Ford Foundation. It was decided very early in the discussions that it would not be possible for the individual colleges to undertake such programs as those of the large universities — they lacked both the books and the personnel. Also, they were unable to compete on equal terms with the universities, and the government, for many of the teachers who were graduating from the universities with specialized area programs. And further, it was decided that specialized training was not the function of such undergraduate liberal arts colleges.

CONTACT OTHERS

Contact was made with other colleges more like these which had experimented with such cooperative programs. And the experience of such colleges as Swarthmore, Denison, Earlham and the University of Vermont was filtered into the local discussions.

Taken together the six local colleges represent a great potential. They have about 5,500 students and about 455 faculty members, as well as growing collections of books in the non-Western areas.

In addition, many of the six cooperating colleges have lately been adding to their faculties, teachers who have had some training in non-Western cultures. The problem was how to make the most of such potential.

While these discussions were taking place, John Everton left the Ford Foundation to become United States ambassador to Burma. His place was taken, some time later by George M. Beckmann, who had been in charge of a large Asian program at the University of Kansas. It was with Mr. Beckmann that the negotiations

Jr., chairman of the Mount St. Mary's English department, and J. D. Broussard, instructor in philosophy, will take part in the India study, and Mariemmi G. Wanek, assistant professor of social studies, will represent St. Joseph's.

COLLEGES CONTRIBUTE

The colleges are contributing an additional $78,000 of their own funds to the program. Dr. Norman E. Richardson Jr., professor of philosophy at Gettysburg College, is to serve as coordinator of the program which includes staff members from Hood, Western Maryland, Dickinson and Gettysburg, in addition

President's Report On St. Joseph College

The following report was given by Sister Hilda Gleason, president of Saint Joseph College, to the Lay Advisory Board of the College, at its annual May meeting. Sister Hilda, now a member of the Provincial Council, has been succeeded as president by Sister Rosemary Pfaff.

President John F. Kennedy in delivering his message on education to the Congress of the United States, February, 1962, states:

"No task before our nation is more important than expanding and improving the educational opportunities of all our people. The concept that every American deserves the opportunities to attain the highest level of education of which he is capable is not new . . . it is a traditional ideal of democracy. But it is time we moved toward the fulfillment of this ideal with more vigor and less delay."

Reflection on Mr. Kennedy's statement results in the conviction that the task of the nation to fulfill its educational ideal with more vigor and less delay will only be accomplished if and when each unit or each cell of the educational system, be it a school, college, or a university, fulfills this ideal with more vigor and less delay.

A glimpse at Saint Joseph College, possibly a microscopic cell of the educational system of the country, will reveal expansion and improvement of educational opportunities for a progressively increasing student body. This report will attempt to show that, though we are making haste slowly, we are improving the educational opportunities offered within the framework of Saint Joseph College with deliberate vigor and moderate stride. I shall attempt to illustrate this fact in the areas of (1) student population, (2) curriculum, (3) faculty, and (4) student achievements.

STUDENT POPULATION

In 1951 we prided ourselves on having a single room for each student. We then had 178 students. Ten years later, in September 1961, we found it necessary to state that there were no single rooms on campus even after having added a dormitory for approximately 150 students in 1956 and that the registration was closed in early spring. The growth in enrollment from 1951 to 1961 was from 178 to 549 or an increase of 208 per cent. Today our geographical distribution embraces 20 states, the District of Columbia, Iran, Aruba, an island of the Netherlands off the coast of South America, Peru, South America, and the Canal Zone. From these facts it is evident that our student population has expanded rapidly within the last 10 years. Next September we shall have three students from Ceylon and two more from South America.

CURRICULAR OFFERINGS

Each department of the College moves vigorously toward the improvement of its offering through periodic study and revision of courses. A perusal of the minutes of the departmental and divisional meetings indicates deep and careful study of course content, dissatisfaction with overlapping areas, and concentration on the integration of knowledge.

From 1956 to date, grants have been secured for the implementation of projects and experiments in the areas of social studies, education, nursing, science, and the fine arts from the Ford Foundation, the Fund for the Republic, the National Science Foundation, the Raskob Foundation, the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, the Esso Education Foundation, and the Atomic Energy Commission. These grants contributing to the development and implementation of our academic program amounted to $124,545. This figure does not include the $110,000 which the Ford Foundation granted to the college for faculty increments.

Since my last report the College secured a grant of $10,000 scientific equipment. In the summer of 1961, the nursing division secured $13,384 from the Department of Health, Education and Welfare for Mental Health. In December 1961, the college was recipient of $2,000 from the Esso Education Foundation.

FORD FOUNDATION GRANT

On April 19, the Ford Foundation announced that the proposal submitted by six local colleges, namely, Gettysburg, Hood, Dickinson, Western Maryland, Mount Saint Mary's and Saint Joseph's, on non-Western studies was approved and that $180,000 was allotted for this two-year project. This program will enable members of our college faculty to study in the summer, participate in seminars during the year, visit non-Western countries, and, subsequently, spend a year of concentrated study in the country about which they have studied. Gilbert L. Oddo, Ph.D., chairman of the social studies department, and Adolph M. Wasilifsky, Ph.D., chairman of the English Department, will study the culture and history of China during the coming year. Marie Wanek, Ph.D., assistant professor of social studies and Sister Margaret Ann, Ph.D., associate professor of English, will concentrate on India during the second year of the program. Sister Jusca, Ed.D., and Sister Robertine, Ed.D., will also participate in the seminar sessions during the next two years.

Since October of this year a faculty committee has been working on the formulation of a plan for a Child Development Research Center for observation and research, with instruction and guidance of the rural area preschool children and their environment. As proposed the center will also provide parents of the participating children, and the parents of the rural communities generally, with an opportunity for objective observation of their child, and discussion of the behavior and needs of the child with the assistance of trained instructors. The center will also serve as a study-practice opportunity for the students of Saint Joseph College majoring in the various fields of service, including the enrichments offered by the liberal arts disciplines, and teaching, dietetics, nursing social welfare, and physical education. This proposal will be submitted to the Ford Foundation.

In February of this year a proposal was submitted to the Sperry and Hutchinson Company for a lectureship program. The theme of the program is "The United States in the World of the Sixties." During the past month at the invitation of Dr. Seay, director of education of the W. K. Kellogg Foundation, the college submitted a proposal for a grant of $10,000 to improve the quality of the teacher preparation program through the acquisition of books for the college library, and to increase the effectiveness of library services of the college. General participation of the administration and faculty in preparing these proposals has been both stimulating and rewarding.

MATCHING GRANT

Presently, the college is seeking a matching grant from the National Science Foundation for Undergraduate Instructional Equipment for Chemistry. The proposal for this grant has been prepared by Sister Denise, M.S., chairman of the chemistry department. Sister Denise is also seeking a two-year grant for a National Science Foundation Undergraduate Research Participation Program, 1962-1964.

The department of modern languages is expanding its program. For the past four years, students of the French department have been attending Laval University, Quebec, Canada, for summer study. This summer six students from three different classes will spend the summer studying in Canada. This year we find ourselves increasing our stride as we initiate the Junior year abroad. In September, six of our students will study French in a foreign climate. Aileen Borst has been accepted by the University of Poitiers, France, and Carolyn Cox, Joan Finn, Maureen Fahey, Mary Jo Roos, and Virginia Wagner by Laval University, Canada.

The plans set up for the Institute on the Fine Arts in a Christian Culture in 1959-60 provided for the recording and sharing of lectures of the institute on a lending basis with other colleges, especially those colleges associated with the Sister-Formation Movement. This plan has grown to the extent that we are now sharing recordings of our Fine Arts Institute, as well as the recordings of our college lecture series with Junior and Senior High Schools, Colleges, and Sister Formation groups. During the past year, we lent 79 tape recordings to interested groups in Maryland, New York, New Jersey, Connecticut, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Idaho, Florida, District of Columbia as well as to Puerto Rico, Portugal, and France.

PROGRAM COMMENTS

A comment on one of the fine arts recordings from across the sea states, the tape was "OUT OF THIS WORLD." I grabbed it and played it carefully and took notes on it. I used the notes for some talks, too. The lecturer himself must be close to God. I loved the closing part when he spoke of emphasizing the PERSON OF CHRIST. The phrase about Christ "invading our heart" was exquisite. Thank you over and over again for sending this tape." A note from Richmond relative to this same tape refers to it also as "out of this world." "I liked the lecturer's explanation of modern art — what the artist is trying to say. This is the first time I really grasped the significance of it all." In referring to a recording on mental health, Dr. Harold D. Reese of the State Department of Education states: "I feel that the speaker expresses some of the most practical applications of the psychology of teaching and I hope to be able to make his ideals available to students who are being prepared for teaching." Dr. Reese is using a copy of this tape in his work with the teachers in this state. In my estimation this project has enabled us to share our lecturers with approximately 2,400 individuals in distant areas. Is this not indicative of the fact that we are striving to broaden our sphere of influence and transmit our rich heritage with more vigor and less delay?

FACULTY

There is constant effort on the part of the administration and faculty to improve themselves and their work through study, attendance at professional meetings, and research efforts. Several of our faculty members are writing books. Sister Bernadette is presently doing background work for a much needed textbook on Principles and Methods for Teaching in Nursing. Dr. Gilbert L. Oddo has completed two-thirds of his third book. This book will be entitled "Roosevelt Years — Supreme Court from 1939-1949." An article by Sister Denise entitled "Quantitative Analysis of Ions by Diffusion in Gelatin" will be published in the Journal of Chemical Education shortly. The research work currently being carried on in the chemistry department in cooperation with Dr. Marvin S. Antelman on the Detection of Cross-linkage in Gel Systems by Viscosity and Chelation Measurements was described at the national meeting of the American Chemical Society in Chicago last September.

Last year, I reported that Marie Wanek, Ph.D., was an alternate for a Fulbright award to study in India. This year Dr. Wanek has won the award and will attend the University of Osmania during the summer. Last month, Sister Margaret, D.U., directed a workshop on Audio-Lingual Materials in French for Secondary School Teachers of French in the Archdiocese of Pittsburgh. The Archdiocese of Philadelphia has extended an invitation to Sister

Margaret to conduct a similar workshop in Philadelphia next fall. Sister Margaret's experience on the NDEA Workshop at Rivier College in New Hampshire was very profitable to her and the members of her department. Sister Margaret will lecture at Hood College toward the end of this month. She also conducted a nine-day workshop for secondary school teachers of French and Spanish at Saint Joseph College during the latter part of August.

This year found the members of our faculty and administration holding offices in professional associations serving on committees, on boards of trustees, and participating in panel discussions throughout the country. Expansion of our program necessitates the addition of faculty members in the field of philosophy, foreign languages English, science and social studies for next year.

STUDENT ACHIEVEMENT

This year was again rich in lecturer offerings by outstanding off-campus speakers. In addition to these lecturers, a series of talks on social responsibility and the intellectual life was given by faculty members on campus. Students served as chairmen and content recorders for this lecture series and enjoyed this intimate participation. A series of three symposia on social responsibility in the home, on the campus, and in the world at large, comprising joint sessions with faculty and students, was also rewarding. The basic aims of these series on social responsibility was to make the students aware of and concerned about their responsibilities to God, their neighbor, and themselves as members of the mystical body of Christ. Follow up of these lecturers indicate that students are becoming increasingly conscious of their potential impact on the world at large through prayer, sacrifice, and work.

Graduate awards thus far granted to our students this year include: (1) a Fulbright to Margaret Drennan, '58, for study in Spain; (2) an assistantship to Kathleen Farr for study in Institute of Eastern Studies at Saint John's University; (3) a three-year fellowship leading to a doctoral degree to Patricia Hopkins at the University of Missouri; (4) a National Institute of Mental Health grant to Marie Karl, '61, who has just completed a year as a lay apostle in New Mexico, for graduate study in psychiatric social work at Saint Louis University; (5) a French government assistantship to Kathleen Seely; (6) an assistantship at the University of North Carolina to Virginia Simons, '59; (7) a full tuition scholarship to Catherine Kochanski for study at the University of Laval for the summer 1962. Philomena Liscio, who has been doing undergraduate research on a National Science Foundation Grant both winter and summer has been the recipient of three graduate awards, namely, to the Catholic University for chemistry; to Saint John's University, for chemistry; and a second to the Catholic University for a special research program. Miss Liscio accepted the first of these for the Catholic University of America. Miss Helen Collins was offered an award leading to a doctoral degree in biometrics at the Catholic University of America. Miss Mary Ellison has been selected to be one of the 15 state university — "Experiment in International Living Study—Live Abroad" scholars who will sail for France and the British Isles in June.

An article entitled "Dear Kate" by Mary Maloney '62 appeared in the Journal of the Lancaster County Historical Society, summer 1961. This was continued on Page 10.

President's Report On St. Joseph College

The following report was given by Sister Hilda Gleason, president of Saint Joseph College, to the Lay Advisory Board of the College, at its annual May meeting. Sister Hilda, now a member of the Provincial Council, has been succeeded as president by Sister Rosemary Pfaff.

President John F. Kennedy in delivering his message on education to the Congress of the United States, February, 1962, states:

"No task before our nation is more important than expanding and improving the educational opportunities of all our people. The concept that every American deserves the opportunities to attain the highest level of education of which he is capable is not new . . . it is a traditional ideal of democracy. But it is time we moved toward the fulfillment of this ideal with more vigor and less delay."

Reflection on Mr. Kennedy's statement results in the conviction that the task of the nation to fulfill its educational ideal with more vigor and less delay will only be accomplished if and when each unit or each cell of the educational system, be it a school, college, or a university, fulfills this ideal with more vigor and less delay.

A glimpse at Saint Joseph College, possibly a microscopic cell of the educational system of the country, will reveal expansion and improvement of educational opportunities for a progressively increasing student body. This report will attempt to show that, though we are making haste slowly, we are improving the educational opportunities offered within the framework of Saint Joseph College with deliberate vigor and moderate stride. I shall attempt to illustrate this fact in the areas of (1) student population, (2) curriculum, (3) faculty, and (4) student achievements.

STUDENT POPULATION

In 1951 we prided ourselves on having a single room for each student. We then had 178 students. Ten years later, in September 1961, we found it necessary to state that there were no single rooms on campus even after having added a dormitory for approximately 150 students in 1956 and that the registration was closed in early spring. Teachers Will Participate In Ford Foundation Study Of Chinese, Indian Culture

Two Mount St. Mary's teachers and two from St. Joseph College are among participants from six area colleges in a two-year Ford Foundation grant of $180,000 for a cooperative faculty study program in Chinese and Indian culture.

Dr. John L. Morrison, chairman of the History Department, and Dr. Robert Marshall, chairman of the Classics Department, will represent Mount St. Mary's in the Chinese study which began this summer and will continue through the year. Dr. Adolph Wasilifsky, chairman of the English Department, and Dr. Gilbert Oddo, associate professor of social studies, will represent St. Joseph College.

Next year Dr. John J. Dillon

to Mount St. Mary's and St. Joseph's. Dr. Morrison will serve as liaison officer for Mount St. Mary's.

The China part of the program is under the general direction of Wing-tsit Chan of Dartmouth College. Dr. Chan was born in China and received his undergraduate education at the missionary university of Lingnan in Canton. He received his doctorate from Harvard and returned to Lingnan as dean. From there he went, via the University of Hawaii, to Dartmouth, where he is professor of Chinese culture and philosophy.

Dr. Chan is the author of a number of books on the history, religion and philosophy of China, a few of which can be seen in the general bibliography which he produced for the program. He is also a contributor to many other volumes, and the translator of a number of Chinese texts. In addition to this scholarly work he had found time to serve on a number of committees and international institutes. The program is very fortunate to have such a well-qualified person to serve in this capacity.

FIRST SEMINAR

The first of the seminars will take place at Gettysburg College this fall, September 23-29, 1962, and will be led by Dr. Chan. Other seminar leaders include, besides Dr. Chan who will lead several of them, Professor George B. Cressey of Syracuse, Professor C. K. Yang, of Pittsburgh, Professor James R. Hightower, and Professor John W. H. Lindbeck, of Harvard, and Professor Harold C. Hinton of Trinity College, and others. Announcements of the time and place of those parts of the seminars which are open to the public will be made in the local papers.

The participants from the other colleges, and their fields of study are: Donald W. Flaherty of Dickinson, political science; H. Wade Scaford Jr., of Dickinson, anthropology; John Roger Stemen of Gettysburg, history; Glendon F. Collier of Gettysburg, languages; Mary E. Randolph of Hood, art; Francis Hugo of Hood, psychology and Reuben S. Holtzhouse of Western Maryland, philosophy.

The program calls for the training of interested faculty members in the cultures of China and India, with one part of the program being devoted to each. Each part of the program will entail three stages.

SUMMER READING

The first of these will be a summer of reading from an extensive list of general background books. Such reading will serve to give all the participants something of a common background.

The second part of the program

will consist of 12 specialized seminars during the following academic year concentrating on such areas as history, art, religion,

government, anthropology, geography, philosophy and literature. Specialized bibliographies will be furnished the participants well in advance of the seminars, and, as they will be teaching only half time, they will be able to make preparation for these seminars.

The third part of the program will take place during the following summer when the participants will study at some of the graduate centers either in this country or abroad.

LONG PLANNING

This program is one of the results of the long-range planning which has engaged the faculty and administration of the various institutions over a two-year period.

The first concrete step was a meeting called by former President Paul on October 26, 1960. At this meeting the representatives of the various colleges shared his concern for a broadening of the scope of a liberal arts education, and approved the appointment of a faculty committee to suggest means of implementing this concern.

The faculty members who took part in the discussion which followed included: James Carson and Donald Flaherty of Dickinson; Bruce Boenau and Norman Richardson of Gettysburg; Jack C. Davis of Hood; John Morrison of Mt. Saint Mary's; Gilbert Oddo and Mariemmi Wanek of Saint Joseph, and Ralph Price of Western Maryland.

VISITING EXPERTS

With the cooperation of Ward

Morehouse educational director of The Asia Society, a number of experts in this field visited the six campuses during the next year and met with the committee. The visiting experts were: Wingsit Chan of Dartmouth; William T. deBary of Columbia; Robert Crane of Michigan (now of Duke), and Kenneth Morgan of Colgate.

A tentative program was drawn up and exploratory conversations were initiated with John Everton of The Ford Foundation. It was decided very early in the discussions that it would not be possible for the individual colleges to undertake such programs as those of the large universities — they lacked both the books and the personnel. Also, they were unable to compete on equal terms with the universities, and the government, for many of the teachers who were graduating from the universities with specialized area programs. And further, it was decided that specialized training was not the function of such undergraduate liberal arts colleges.

CONTACT OTHERS

Contact was made with other colleges more like these which had experimented with such cooperative programs. And the experience of such colleges as Swarthmore, Denison, Earlham and the University of Vermont was filtered into the local discussions.

Taken together the six local colleges represent a great potential. They have about 5,500 students and about 455 faculty members, as well as growing collections of books in the non-Western areas.

In addition, many of the six co-operating colleges have lately been adding to their faculties, teachers who have had some training in non-Western cultures. The problem was how to make the most of such potential.

While these discussions were taking place, John Everton left the Ford Foundation to become United States ambassador to Burma. His place was taken, some time later by George M. Beckmann, who had been in charge of a large Asian program at the University of Kansas. It was with Mr. Beckmann that the negotiations

Jr., chairman of the Mount St. Mary's English department, and J. D. Breussard, instructor in philosophy, will take part in the India study, and Mariemmi G. Wanek, assistant professor of social studies, will represent St. Joseph's.

COLLEGES CONTRIBUTE

The colleges are contributing an additional $70,000 of their own funds to the program. Dr. Norman E. Richardson Jr., professor of philosophy at Gettysburg College, is to serve as coordinator of the program which includes staff members from Hood, Western Maryland, Dickinson and Gettysburg, in addition

Fr. O'Connor Begins Duties At St. Joseph

The Very Reverend Charles J. O'Connor, C.M., has assumed his new duties as director of the Eastern Province of the community of the Daughters of Charity of St. Vincent de Paul, the Sisters of the Saint Joseph Central House in Emmitsburg. Father O'Connor relieved the Very Rev. Francis J. Dodd, C.M., former director of the province,

FR. C. J. O'CONNOR

for a new assignment at the Vincentian Seminary in Philadelphia.

The new administrator is a native of New York City, where he was educated in the public and parochial schools. A graduate of Niagara University, he was ordained into the priesthood upon completion of studies at Saint Vincent's Seminary in Philadelphia. Father O'Connor served in China in the early years of his priesthood, returning to the seminary of the Vincentians in Germantown, Pa., as novice master and director of the novitiate. More recently, he has served as superior of the novitiate at Ridgefield, N. J.

In addition to his duties as administrator of the Eastern Province of the Daughters of Charity, Father O'Connor will also serve as chairman of the Board of Trustees of Saint Joseph College in Emmitsburg.

College Receives Rare Gutenberg Bible Leaf

Miss Mary O'Leary of Binghamton, N. Y., has presented the college with a leaf from an original Gutenberg Bible, including Chapters 34 and 35 of the Book of Exodus. This leaf is from the great Latin Bible referred to as the 42-line Bible — so-called from the fact that there are 42 lines to the column. It is fully rubricated. The printing of this Bible was completed not later than A.D. 1456, and probably earlier.

Miss O'Leary presented this rare specimen of Gutenberg's printing in memory of her brother, the Rev. John J. O'Leary, who was a member of the Class of 1909.

This leaf was exhibited along with other incunabula during Commencement Week in the foyer of the library.

Colleges To Present Top Headliners

A group of concert and dramatic headliners feature the annual series cosponsored by Mount St. Mary's and St. Joseph Colleges this year.

Kicking off the series is baritone William Warfield on October 16 in DePaul Auditorium on the St. Joseph campus. The Oberkirchen Children's Choir will be heard September 22 under the direction of their founder Edith Moeller. Since 1954 the youngsters have sung six sellout American tours, 12 Town Hall concerts and 9 major TV engagements.

On December 16, the Mount St. Mary's Seminary Schola Cantorum, assisted by guest instrumentalists will present its annual Christmas concert featuring the contemporary Saint Nicholas Canata by Benjamin Britten. The Mount St. Mary's singers, under the direction of Father David W. Shaum, Ph.D., professor of music and college treasurer, have performed to turn-away crowds in the college chapel the past five years. The Schola will sing at 8 p.m.

Vronsky and Babin, world famous duo-pianists, will play on February 6; the Robert DeComier Folk Singers will sing on February 25, and the National Players will present Shakespeare's "Othello" on March 25.

All programs except the Schola Cantorum concert are scheduled for De Paul Auditorium, St. Joseph College, at 7:30 p.m.

SJC Newcomers Hail From Fifteen States

The 121 Freshmen students at Saint Joseph represent 15 states and three foreign areas, with the largest groups from the states of Maryland (27), New York (20), and New Jersey and Pennsylvania, each contributing 18 students.

Miss Constance Marie Smith, Gettysburg R. 5, is among the Freshman class of 1962. Her classmates include students from Maine to Alabama, with France, Puerto Rico, and Colombia, South America, constituting the areas outside the continental United States.

Seventeen members of the Class of 1966 have earned scholarship recognition on the basis of their high school academic achievement. Maryland state scholarships and New Jersey awards are included among the various scholarships received, as well as grants from the Rotary Club, Veterans of Foreign Wars and various foundations and societies. The National Association of Secondary School Principals and the Association of American University Women have also granted financial awards to outstanding members of the new class.

for the Ford grant was finally concluded.

At the present no definite plans have been made as to how to make the most use of such faculty members and the enlarged library holdings beyond the enrichment of the courses which they normally teach. But the world situation today demands that the liberally educated student should know more than his own culture and background. One indication of this is the Pennsylvania requirement that the high schools offer at least a one-semester course in world cultures. And the six colleges are setting up their committees to see how they can best bring to bear added strength to this contemporary need.

ATTEND MEETINGS

Students attended meetings with faculty in the following areas: (1) Philosophy with Dr. Povsic, at Wilson College, Pa.; (2) Business with Miss Christie, Vocational Guidance Conference for business education, in Arlington, Va.; (3) Education with Sister Robertine, in Baltimore, the Maryland State Teachers Convention, and with Sister Berchmanns at Towson State Teachers College, the mathematics section of Maryland State Teachers Association; (4) Social Studies with Dr. Oddo, the annual convention of the Catholic Association for International Peace, in Washington; (5) French with Sister Margaret and Miss Fitzpatrick, the Alliance Francaise, in Gettysburg, and the John Hopkins University and Loyola College in Baltimore. sional associations both in and out of the state of Maryland.

One of our former students, Helen Rupp, is now in Africa with the Peace Corps. Miss Janice, a senior nursing student and presently president of the Student Nurses' Council of Maryland was one of the first who volunteered for the Peace Corps when tentative plans were first announced. Janice would like to go to China. She has read widely on the culture of China and is taking lessons in Cantonese from a member of the Central Intelligence Agency staff.

Since a note about finances must always be mentioned in a president's report, it must be said that, financially, the college has been able to keep within its budget; but has still a debt of $365,552 on the Student Center and Rosary Hall.

This report has endeavored to show that Saint Joseph College, though but a very small part of the educational system in this country, has endeavored to do its part to expand and improve its offering with more vigor and less delay.

In the past year, we have dreamed about new buildings — a science building, a new library, additional residence halls — but these dreams have not yet materialized. We trust, however, that we have grown in more significant ways, and that each department of the college, each faculty member, and each student on our campus has advanced in the acquisition of truth and that each member of our college family is moving with more vigor and less delay toward the possession of the Greatest Truth — the Semper Verum — God Himself.

We wish to thank you most sincerely for the help and advice you have given us this year. All of us here at Saint Joseph College are grateful to you.

Fr. O'Connor Begins Duties At St. Joseph

The Very Reverend Charles J. O'Connor, C.M., has assumed his new duties as director of the Eastern Province of the community of the Daughters of Charity of St. Vincent de Paul, the Sisters of the Saint Joseph Central House in Emmitsburg. Father O'Connor relieved the Very Rev. Francis J. Dodd, C.M., former director of the province, for a new assignment at the Vincentian Seminary in Philadelphia.

FR. C. J. O'CONNOR

The new administrator is a native of New York City, where he was educated in the public and parochial schools. A graduate of Niagara University, he was ordained into the priesthood upon completion of studies at Saint Vincent's Seminary in Philadelphia. In the early years of his priesthood, returning to the seminary of the Vincentians in Germantown, Pa., as novice master and director of the novitiate. More recently, he has served as superior of the novitiate at Ridgefield, N. J.

In addition to his duties as administrator of the Eastern Province of the Daughters of Charity, Father O'Connor will also serve as chairman of the Board of Trustees of Saint Joseph College in Emmitsburg.

College Receives Rare Gutenberg Bible Leaf

Miss Mary O'Leary of Binghamton, N. Y., has presented the college with a leaf from an original Gutenberg Bible, including Chapters 34 and 35 of the Book of Exodus. This leaf is from the great Latin Bible referred to as the 42-line Bible — so-called from the fact that there are 42 lines to the column. It is fully rubricated. The printing of this Bible was completed not later than A.D. 1456, and probably earlier.

Miss O'Leary presented this rare specimen of Gutenberg's printing in memory of her brother, the Rev. John J. O'Leary, who was a member of the Class of 1909.

This leaf was exhibited along with other incunabula during Commencement Week in the foyer of the library.

Colleges To Present Top Headliners

Library Receives $10,000 Kellogg Foundation Grant

Mount St. Mary's College Library

The W. K. Kellogg Foundation of Battle Creek, Mich., has made a grant of $10,000 to the Mount St. Mary's to improve the quality of the teacher education programs. The Mount was one of the eight colleges of Maryland to receive such a grant.

Institutions considered for the grants were those which have regional accreditation, well-organized teacher education programs, and a need for financial assistance to improve their libraries. These funds are to be used only for the purchase of books to improve the teacher education program.

As a basis for the grants, each participating college has drawn up a careful and long-range plan for improving its library, and since books serve different curriculums, it is anticipated the acquisition of new books will not only aid teacher education programs but will also heighten the effectiveness of the library services generally.

Only those departments or divisions of the colleges which participate in teacher education will be directly aided, with the staff work of ordering and cataloging the additional books to be performed by the regular library staff over a three-year period. Each college has assured the Foundation that the institution will continue its library support at the present level or higher and will use the grant for book purchases that cannot be financed from its regular budget.

The grants by the Foundation constitute another recognition of the importance of the small, private, four-year liberal arts college to American higher education. The role of these colleges in teacher preparation programs can be appreciated when it is noted that small, private colleges comprise more than one-half the institutions having teacher education programs and supply slightly more than 25 per cent of all the public elementary and high school teachers of the United States.

Expanded enrollments and soaring costs point up needs for increased staffs, facilities, budgets, and services. Obviously, these needs are beyond the aid that can be extended through the Foundation's limited resources. However, it is believed that the assistance to libraries can contribute to the quality of teacher education for several generations of students, for a strong and dynamic library is a keystone to new preprofessional and professional curriculums, the stimulus of new teaching aids, and increased emphasis upon self-directed and self-motivated education.

Gerald C. Orosz, director of the Mount St. Mary's student-teacher program, stated that the grant will be of major benefit to the program, not only in providing materials needed in the field of education but on the various departmental levels of individual study as well.

He further said that 46 degrees were awarded to education majors at the June Commencement exercises among the 152 graduates.

During the spring semester 36

seniors participated in the student-teacher program and spent their final semester of study teaching in the local high schools at Emmitsburg, Gettysburg, Waynesboro, Littlestown, Taneytown, Fairfield, Union Bridge and Baltimore.

Prof. Orosz concluded by saying the increased enrollment in the teacher preparation program next fall will necessitate the inclusion of other area schools. "Thus, not only will Mount St. Mary's benefit by the Kellogg grant but area schools will benefit in an indirect manner."

Language Lab Headed By Sr. Margaret

St. Joseph College in Emmitsburg conducted a workshop on methodology in French and Spanish from August 4 through August 14. The intensive program, centered on new audio-lingual materials, was sponsored by the Modern Language Department of the college and attended by the Sisters of the Community of the Daughters of Charity serving as secondary school teachers of French and Spanish.

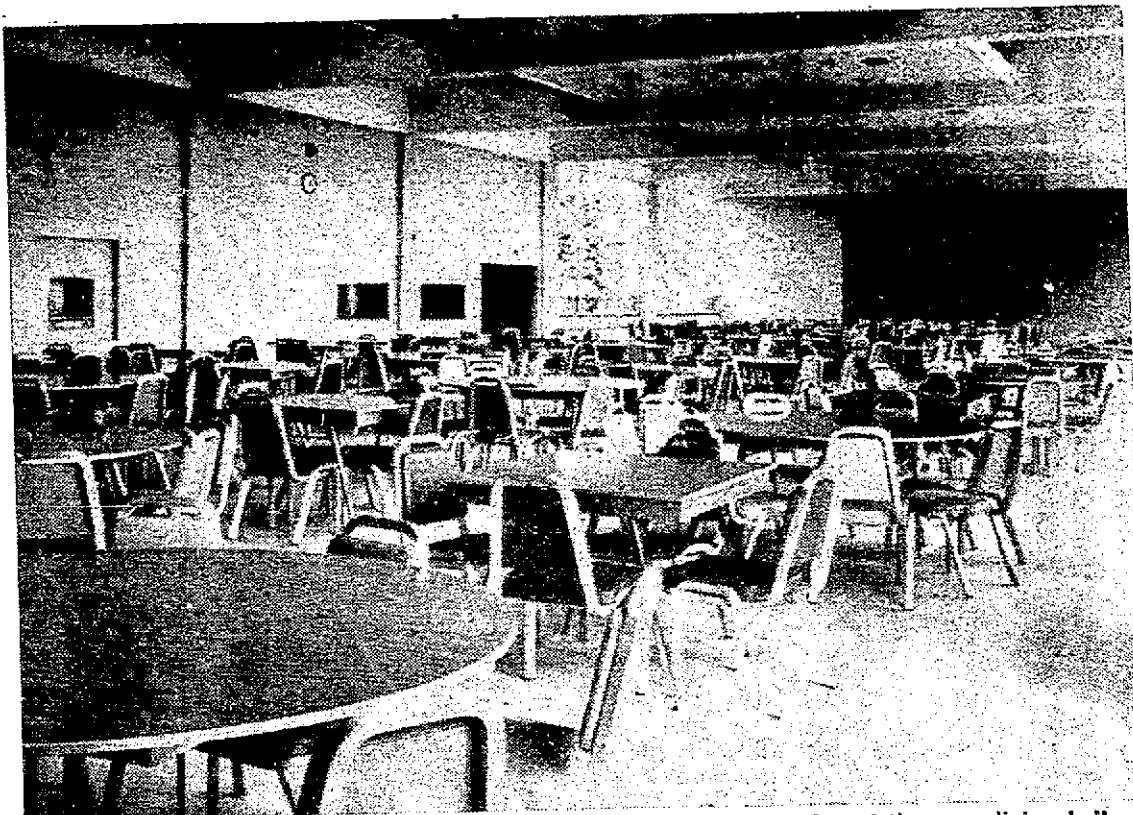

The program was opened by Sister Margaret Flinton, D.U., head of the Modern Language Department at the college, and included daily demonstrations of audio-lingual materials in French offered to classes made up of children from the Emmitsburg area. Participants had daily sessions in applied techniques, in which those attending the program conducted demonstrations utilizing material presented during the workshop. One class in applied techniques was based on Spanish audio-lingual materials, presented by Sister Refugio, of the University of Puerto Rico.

John P. Widmeier, representing Harcourt, Brace and World, Inc., addressed the workshop on audio-lingual materials. The topic, "English as a Foreign Language," was presided over by Sister Ana Luisa, of San Juan, Puerto Rico. As an example of televised teaching, films from the "Parlons Francais" series were shown to the group.

Miss Julia Stephenson, a professional teacher representing the Chilton Company of Philadelphia, conducted a demonstration of the Saint-Cloud Language Program. Other features of the 10-day workshop included "Adelante, amigos," a film study of the midwest program on airborne television instruction, as well as demonstrations dealing with current issues and modern approaches in the field of foreign language teaching.

Juniors Kathleen Curren, Maureen Fahey, Joan Finn, Mary Jo Roos and Virginia Wagner will study French at Laval U.

Third row: Judith Arnold, Loretta Byrne, Joanne Barkley and Patricia Lieb.

Marillac Medal Given Mrs. Mary Giordano

The Saint Louise de Marillac Medal was awarded to a New York City woman at the annual convocation held in De Paul auditorium of St. Joseph College last March 10, 1962. His Eminence, Francis Cardinal Spellman confirmed the selection of Mary Shea Giordano of the New York Archdiocese as the recipient of the award.

Mrs. Giordano, currently serving as president of the Ladies of Charity in New York, is widely known for her dedicated personal service to her fellow men, a determining factor in the selection of the medal winner each year.

Annually, the Saint Louise de Marillac Medal is presented to a Catholic laywoman approved by the hierarchy of her diocese for self-sacrificing personal service to her neighbor. The first laywoman to receive the award was Alice R. May, assistant director of Catholic Charities in the Baltimore Archdiocese. Mary Amabilis Dixon, selected from the Washington Archdiocese, won the medal in 1960, and Clara Somma Fowler, of Richmond, was honored in 1961.

Miss Aileen Borst, a Junior, will study at the University of Potiers, France, this fall in conjunction with the Junior program.

Library Receives $10,000 Kellogg Foundation Grant

Mount St. Mary's College Library

The W K Kellogg Foundation of Battle Creek, Mich., has made a grant of $10,000 to the Mount St. Mary's to improve the quality of the teacher education programs. The Mount was one of the eight colleges of Maryland to receive such a grant.

Institutions considered for the grants were those which have regional accreditation, well-organized teacher education programs and a need for financial assistance to improve their libraries. These funds are to be used only for the purchase of books to improve the teacher education program.

As a basis for the grants, each participating college has drawn up a careful and long-range plan for improving its library, and since books serve different curriculums, it is anticipated the acquisition of new books will not only aid teacher education programs but will also heighten the effectiveness of the library services generally.

Only those departments or divisions of the colleges which participate in teacher education will be directly aided, with the staff work of ordering and cataloging the additional books to be performed by the regular library staff over a three-year period. Each college has assured the Foundation that the institution will continue its library support at the present level or higher and will use the grant for book purchases that cannot be financed from its regular budget.

The grants by the Foundation constitute another recognition of the importance of the small, private, four-year liberal arts college to American higher education. The role of these colleges in teacher preparation programs can be appreciated when it is noted that small, private colleges comprise more than one-half the institutions having teacher education programs and supply slightly more than 25 per cent of all the public elementary and high school teachers in the United States.

Expanded enrollments and soaring costs point up needs for increased staffs, facilities, budgets, and services. Obviously, these needs are beyond the aid that can be extended through the Foundation's limited resources. However, it is believed that the assistance to libraries can contribute to the quality of teacher education for several generations of students for a strong and dynamic library is a keystone to new preprofessional and professional curriculums the stimulus of new teaching aids and increased emphasis upon self-directed and self-motivated education.

Gerald C Orosz, director of the Mount St. Mary's student-teacher program stated that the grant will be of major benefit to the program, not only in providing materials needed in the field of education but on the various departmental levels of individual study as well.

He further said that 46 degrees were awarded to education majors at the June Commencement exercises among the 152 graduates.

During the spring semester 36

seniors participated in the student-teacher program and spent their final semester of study teaching in the local high schools at Emmitsburg, Gettysburg, Waynesboro, Littlestown, Taneytown, Fairfield, Union Bridge and Baltimore.

Prof Orosz concluded by saying the increased enrollment in the teacher preparation program next fall will necessitate the inclusion of other area schools. "Thus, not only will Mount St. Mary's benefit by the Kellogg grant but area schools will benefit in an indirect manner."

tion at Lycee Municipal de Jeunes Filles, in Nièvre, France.

Miss Seely received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Mathematics and French from St. Joseph College in June. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Seely, of 4 Hamilton Place, Jersey City, she sailed on the S.S. Waterman on September 12 with other Fulbright Graduate Assistants and Fellowship recipients. A special program of activities was provided for the American scholars on board ship enroute to the European universities.

Fulbrights, the grants for graduate study abroad, are awarded under the international educational exchange program of the Department of State. The program is designed to promote a better understanding of the United States in other countries, and to provide opportunities for foreign nationals to study in American colleges and universities.

Incoming Freshmen Attend SJC Tea

St. Joseph College nursing students, residents at Laboure Hall at Providence Hospital in Washington, sponsored the annual August "Get Acquainted Tea" for the 1962 Freshmen from the Washington-Baltimore area. More than 150 persons attended the informal party planned to introduce the new students to the upperclassmen of the Emmitsburg college from their home area.

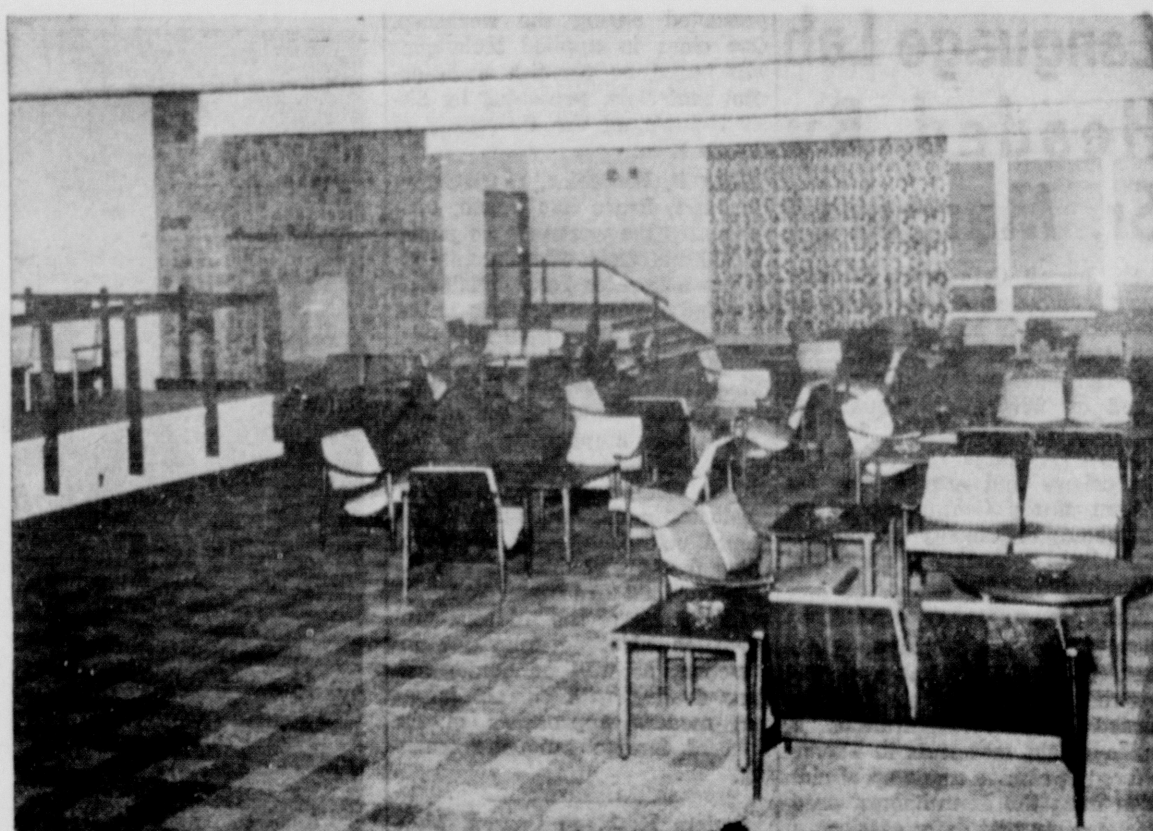

The tea was also attended by St. Joseph College students of the Washington area. Members of the sister-faculty of St. Joseph College, were present to greet the members of the new class.

Sister Christine O'Gorman, head of the college's division of nursing, served as moderator to the student committee in charge of arrangements. The junior nursing students assisting Sister Christine were Mary Elizabeth Boisseree, of Arlington, Va.; Christine Ann Carey, Silver Spring, Md.; Maria Drusgal, Baltimore, and Kathleen Smith, of Long Island, N. Y.

Mount Cagers In Nomad Role

Coach Jim Phelan's honor-laden Mount St. Mary's cagers, 1962 NCAA national champs in the college division, will have to throw away their clippings and buckle down to a rugged season once the round ball derby gets under way. The team, featuring three talented holdovers, faces a tough 18-game regular schedule plus two Christmas tourneys. Only seven games will be played at Memorial gym, which makes Phelan's crew a group of nomads.

In Christmas play, the Mountaineers will play December 13-20 in the Lejeune tourney against the Marine team, Tampa, Elon, Catawba, East Carolina, Atlantic Christian and Southern Michigan. After Christmas they will tap off in the New York AC's Winged Foot tourney, December 26-28, against the hosts, Belmont Abbey and Farleigh Dickinson.

The Blue and White will play its usual 14-game Mason-Dixon conference schedule, with only six games at home. They will meet the league's elite teams, playing American Catholic, Loyola, Baltimore and Western Maryland in home-and-home games, Randolph Macon at Emmitsburg, and Washington, Hampden-Sydney and Roanoke in single frays on the road. The dislocation in schedule makes the title defense a rocky road.

Outside the conference the Mountaineers play tough Providence and St. Joe's, open with Hofstra at home, and travel to Shippensburg for a single game.

Mason-Dixon regional will take place on February 23 with the tourney finale set for February 28-March 2 at an undesignated place.

St. Joseph Gets

Kellogg Library Gift

The W. K. Kellogg Foundation has awarded a $10,000 library grant to St. Joseph College to assist the college in increasing the effectiveness of the library with particular emphasis on the college's teacher preparation program.

St. Joseph College was one of eight area colleges receiving the Kellogg Awards for 1962. The grants are part of the foundation's nationwide program during which 250 liberal arts colleges will receive a total of $2,500,000. The colleges involved, who submitted a report on their accreditation and their teacher education program, were required to continue their usual library budget, using the foundation funds for additional books and services in the college library.

The W. K. Kellogg Foundation indicated that small private colleges made up more than one-half of the institutions with teacher preparation programs, furnishing more than 25 per cent of the public elementary and secondary teachers of the nation. Sister Justa, Ed D., is chairman of the Department of Education at the college.

Joyce, Baltimore; Mrs. Henry V. Ratke, Williamsport, Pa.; Mrs. Conyers Davis, Collegeville, Pa.; Miss Regina H. Lenihan, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Mrs. Lloyd C. Shackelford, Lutherville, Md.; Mrs. Richard Conley, Wilmington, Del.; Mrs. Edward A. Flanagan, of Baltimore, and Mrs. Martin K. Dalton, from Springfield, Va.

Sister Rosemary Pfaff, president of the college, will serve as honorary president of the organization, and Sister Mary Ellen Kelley, dean of students at the college, will continue to serve as alumnae moderator. Past president of the alumnae association is Miss Ruth R. Startt, Easton, Md.

Nursing Students Named To Offices

Five Saint Joseph College nursing students have been elected to several important posts in the Student Nurse Council of Maryland, the state-wide organization of nursing students from all accredited Maryland colleges.

Joyce Hillner, a Junior from Irvington, N. J., is the newly-elected president of District No. 1, of the Student Nurses' Council of Maryland. On the state level, Linda Bowman, from Washington, D. C., is the 1962-63 recording secretary, and Mary Sullivan, of Glens Falls, N. Y., is the corresponding secretary. Joyce Hillner was appointed as a member of the nominating committee.

The student nurse organization of Maryland met at Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore, where films showing the participation of Saint Joseph College alumnae, Janice Jaeger and Lynn Nugent, in the group's annual convention in Annapolis were shown. The council pledged to raise a sum of one million Taiwan dollars (equivalent to about $100) for use in the training of a student nurse in Taiwan. Sheila Degnan, Saint Joseph College Senior in nursing, was elected as chairman of Student Organization Project for the Student Nurses' Council of Maryland.

Graduates Do Mission Work

Three 1962 graduates of Saint Joseph College have journeyed to Alamogordo, N. M., to serve as lay apostolates for one year of teaching. The alumnae group will teach at the Immaculate Conception Elementary School in Alamogordo, serving without salary for the academic year.

Among the lay apostolates from the 1962 class are: Joy Ann Knapik, Shamokin, Pa.; Bea Mullin, Edgewater, N. J., and Carol Rossman, Baltimore.

The three volunteers this year increase the total number of lay apostolates contributed by Saint Joseph College to 30 representatives who have given one year to teaching and working in the mission schools since the college first joined the movement in 1957.

The Immaculate Conception School in Alamogordo was opened in 1957, staffed by two Franciscan Sisters and two Saint Joseph College graduates. The recent volunteers have pledged to teach during the year ending in June, 1963, without salary, accepting only travel expenses and room and board, plus a small spending allowance. At Saint Joseph College, the Blessed Clet Unit will continue to work for the support of the lay apostolates, accumulating funds by voluntary offerings of the students, and profits from the student-staffed mission shop on campus.

Soccer Squad Lacks Depth To Top Mark

Coach Jim Deegan's 1961 soccer squad closed out the most successful — 8-3 — season in Mt. St. Mary's history with five straight wins. The event marked the first time a Mountaineer pitch team had ever risen above the .500 mark, as well as the gaudiest winning streak ever.

Graduation cost the Mountaineers a heavy price. All-American Pete Kuhn, a dazzling performer, and left wing Duncan Bossle were lost on the line, as was goalie Woody Stoner, who gave up fewer goals than any of his predecessors, 13 in 11 games. Both Bossle and Stoner were all star performers. A fourth starter Digger Donovan was also graduated and soph Bill Elek will not return to school.

Replacing key players is a routine job with Deegan, but he will have to scramble in a hurry to offset the loss of these five. However, with customary early fall optimism Deegan foresees a good season if he can escape injuries that will deplete his thin squad. The starting eleven looks fairly solid, Deegan thinks, but the reserves are very weak.

RETURNING VETS

Back are Junior Dick Swomley, Emmitsburg, a first team all conference and second team all South choice at center half; Juniors Pat Zimmerman, Emmitsburg, second team all conference, and Lou Brooks, Wilmington, Del., both experienced defensive backs. Senior Jack Carr, Chester, Pa., will move into the goalie spot, if he can stave off the challenge of Connecticut freshman Malcolm McLachlan, with five shutouts in eight games in high school nets, and soph Kip Jarrett, Lambertville, N. J. Deegan feels Jarrett has fine potential.

Senior starters Jack Bransfield, Hicksville, N. Y., and Bob Brown, Centerville, Md., will man the right halfback and inside right positions. Brown was an honorable mention all star lineman as a soph. Both are experienced veterans and, Deegan feels, the most underrated players on his squad. Joe Danek, Bethlehem, Pa., should start at wing and senior Pete Williams, the squad's most valuable player two years ago, will shift from center half to center forward. Soph Dick Fradette, Bristol, Conn., the only freshman to crack the starting lineup last season, will play his inside position.

Two jobs up for grabs are at wing and halfback. Deegan expects freshman Ken Swomley, Emmitsburg, to handle one wing job. The halfback slot will feature a battle among soph Dave Landis, Short Hills, N. J., a quarter-miler on the track team handicapped by a summer leg injury; Larry Hooper, a Mount St. Joseph star from Baltimore, and Stan Ziolkowski, from Calvert Hall in Baltimore. Hooper was 2nd team all state as a schoolboy. Ziolkowski is back after three years of military service.

SECOND TEAM

The second team picture will probably present Junior Art Perless, Middletown, N. J., and Soph Bill Doyle, Haddonfield, N. J., at wings; Junior Tony Saba, Amman, Jordan, at center forward, and two of the following at inside: Junior Ted Harris, Wethersfield, Conn., a starter as a freshman; Senior John Dolan, Hicksville, N. Y., and Junior Ed Abrams, New Hyde Park, N. Y., Senior Jim Yori, Laurel, Del., has started at both halfback and center forward; Pat Kelly, Wil-

as Billy Graham and as snifty as spymaster Arthur Soblen. Some of his best athletes were those who never heard of Mount St. Mary's until Deegan, Machiavelli with the face of a choir boy, turned on his charm, his guileless little boy look and made his pitch.

CROSS COUNTRY RECORD

Like the track squad, Deegan's hill-and-dalers have posted a remarkable record, 31 wins, 17 losses and 1 tie. Last year they dropped only one meet, to American University, and that was an upset that upset Deegan. He'll be looking ahead to the Eagles this season.

Deegan's accomplishments are personal triumphs achieved through careful coaching, tireless hours of work, and constant attention to his personnel — not only on the field but in the classroom as well. Each fall rah-rah letters go out to his squad members, spelling out prospects, cajoling youngsters into getting themselves in shape, checking semester grades and schedules. Day after day notices spring up on hall bulletin boards, predicting results, praising performances, viewing opponents — corny notes that draw the attention of the student body and somehow get an extra effort from Deegan's proteges. On the sidelines, he leads the cheering or writhes in agony depending on the situation. These are all Academy Award performances, though Deegan has no Oscars to show for them.

There may be better coaches around, but you'd have to fight some spindly-legged Mountaineer to prove it. Maybe you'd have to mington, Del., a Junior, has experience at inside. Other job contenders are Senior Joe Farrell, Malverne, N. Y., Junior Lou Armstrong, Towson, and Sophs Roger Eisenhart, Baltimore, and Jim Kulein, Danbury, Conn. Any one of these could push all-conference Pat Zimmerman out of his starting berth as fullback if they improved quickly.

Picking up experience on the third unit are five frosh prospects, Beshel, Hailley, Moriarity, Traugott and Wetzel. Junior George Gelles, Johnstown, Pa.; Sophs Phil Kelly, Marion, O.; Joe Lydon, Philadelphia; Tom Smith, Harleigh, Pa., and Denny Votral, Bethlehem complete the picture.

Deegan started practice on September 10 and expects pre-season scrimmages with Millersville and the International soccer team of Washington, D. C., to sharpen his team for the home opener with Roanoke on September 29.

Deegan considers his overall squad potential better than ever but last year's record will be hard to top. Much depends on whether Bransfield and Brown reach their potential, and the green newcomers take hold.

whip him more than once, for above everything else Deegan's kids wind up with his own unquenchable spirit, and an unbounded affection and admiration for their coach.

He has a way of making first class men as well as fine athletes. Maybe that's his proudest accomplishment.

Students taking the foreign comprehensive exam at the beginning and end of the year abroad.

NCAA Cage

ace the Providence Friars two days later in Rhode Island. They will have a thorough league testing before the holidays, as they play Baltimore at home and then face real contenders in Hampden-

Sydney, Roanoke and Catholic University in road jousts over a five-day period. By that time Phelan should have a pretty good idea of what his new cage machine can do.

One thing is certain. The path to a third straight Mason-Dixon crown and the prize plum of NCAA tourney play is full of road blocks. This year's squad will have to be a good bit better than last year's to survive.

Soccer Squad Lacks Depth To Top Mark

Coach Jim Deegan's 1961 soccer squad closed out the most successful — 8-3 — season in Mt. St. Mary's history with five straight wins. The event marked the first time a Mountaineer pitch team had ever risen above the .500 mark, as well as the gaudiest winning streak ever.

Graduation cost the Mountaineers a heavy price. All-American Pete Kuhn, a dazzling performer, and left wing Duncan Bossle were lost on the line, as was goalie Woody Stoner, who gave up fewer goals than any of his predecessors, 13 in 11 games. Both Bossle and Stoner were all star performers. A fourth starter Digger Donovan was also graduated and soph Bill Elek will not return to school.

Replacing key players is a routine job with Deegan, but he will have to scramble in a hurry to offset the loss of these five. However, with customary early fall optimism Deegan foresees a good season if he can escape injuries that will deplete his thin squad. The starting eleven looks fairly solid, Deegan thinks, but the reserves are very weak.

RETURNING VETS

Back are Junior Dick Swomley, Emmitsburg, a first team all conference and second team all South choice at center half; Juniors Pat Zimmerman, Emmitsburg, second team all conference, and Lou Brooks, Wilmington, Del., both experienced defensive backs. Senior Jack Carr, Chester, Pa., will move into the goalie spot, if he can stave off the challenge of Connecticut freshman Malcolm McLachlan, with five shutouts in eight games in high school nets, and soph Kip Jarrett, Lambertville, N. J. Deegan feels Jarrett has fine potential.

Senior starters Jack Bransfield, Hicksville, N. Y., and Bob Brown, Centerville, Md., will man the right halfback and inside right positions. Brown was an honorable mention all star lineman as a soph. Both are experienced veterans and, Deegan feels, the most underrated players on his squad. Joe Danek, Bethlehem, Pa., should start at wing and senior Pete Williams, the squad's most valuable player two years ago, will shift from center half to center forward. Soph Dick Fradette, Bristol, Conn., the only freshman to crack the starting lineup last season, will play his inside position.

Two jobs up for grabs are at wing and halfback. Deegan expects freshman Ken Swomley, Emmitsburg, to handle one wing job. The halfback slot will feature a battle among soph Dave Landis, Short Hills, N. J., a quarter-miler on the track team handicapped by a summer leg injury; Larry Hooper, a Mount St. Joseph star from Baltimore, and Stan Ziolkowski, from Calvert Hall in Baltimore. Hooper was 2nd team all state as a schoolboy; Ziolkowski is back after three years of military service.

SECOND TEAM

The second team picture will probably present Junior Art Perless, Middletown, N. J., and Soph Bill Doyle, Haddonfield, N. J., at wings; Junior Tony Saba, Amman, Jordan, at center forward, and two of the following at inside: Junior Ted Harris, Wethersfield, Conn., a starter as a freshman; Senior John Dolan, Hicksville, N. Y., and Junior Ed Abrams, New Hyde Park, N. Y. Senior Jim Yori, Laurel, Del., has started at both halfback and center forward; Pat Kelly, Wil-

as Billy Graham and as shifty as spymaster Arthur Soblen. Some of his best athletes were those who never heard of Mount St. Mary's until Deegan, Machiavelli with the face of a choir boy, turned on his charm, his guileless little boy look and made his pitch.

CROSS COUNTRY RECORD

Like the track squad, Deegan's hill-and-dalers have posted a remarkable record, 31 wins, 17 losses and 1 tie. Last year they dropped only one meet, to American University, and that was an upset that upset Deegan. He'll be looking ahead to the Eagles this season.

Deegan's accomplishments are personal triumphs achieved through careful coaching, tireless hours of work, and constant attention to his personnel — not only on the field but in the classroom as well. Each fall rah-rah letters go out to his squad members, spelling out prospects, cajoling youngsters into getting themselves in shape, checking semester grades and schedules. Day after day notices spring up on hall bulletin boards, predicting results, praising performances, viewing opponents — corny notes that draw the attention of the student body and somehow get an extra effort from Deegan's proteges. On the sidelines, he leads the cheering or writhes in agony depending on the situation. These are all Academy Award performances, though Deegan has no Oscars to show for them.

There may be better coaches around, but you'd have to fight some spindly-legged Mountaineer to prove it. Maybe you'd have to mington, Del., a Junior, has experience at inside. Other job contenders are Senior Joe Farrell, Malverne, N. Y., Junior Lou Armstrong, Towson, and Sophs Roger Eisenhart, Baltimore, and Jim Kuleisa, Danbury, Conn. Any one of these could push all-conference Pat Zimmerman out of his starting berth as fullback if they improved quickly.

Picking up experience on the third unit are five frosh prospects, Beshel, Hantley, Moriarity, Traugolini and Wetzel. Junior George Gelles, Johnstown, Pa.; Sophs Phil Kelly, Marion, O.; Joe Lydon, Philadelphia; Tom Smith, Harleigh, Pa., and Denny Votral, Bethlehem, complete the picture.

Deegan started practice on September 10 and expects pre-season scrimmages with Millersville and the International soccer team of Washington, D. C., to sharpen his team for the home opener with Roanoke on September 29.

Deegan considers his overall squad potential better than ever last year's record will be hard to top. Much depends on whether Bransfield and Brown reach their potential, and the green newcomers take hold.

whip him more than once, for above everything else Deegan's kids wind up with his own unquenchable spirit, and an unbounded affection and admiration for their coach.

He has a way of making first class men as well as fine athletes.

Maybe that's his proudest accomplishment.

ace the Providence Friars two days later in Rhode Island. They will have a thorough league testing before the holidays, as they play Baltimore at home and then face real contenders in Hampden-comprehensive exam at the beginning and end of the year abroad.

Sydney, Roanoke and Catholic University in road jousts over a five-day period. By that time Phelan should have a pretty good idea of what his new cage machine can do.

One thing is certain. The path to a third straight Mason-Dixon crown and the prize plum of NCAA tourney play is full of road blocks. This year's squad will have to be a good bit better than last year's to survive.

The members of the Board of Directors, who will guide the policies of the association for the next two years, are: Mrs. W. R. Kreitzer, Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Joseph F. Joyce, Baltimore; Mrs. Henry V. Ratke, Williamsport, Pa.; Mrs. Conyers Davis, Collegeville, Pa.; Miss Regina H. Lenihan, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Mrs. Lloyd C. Shackelford, Lutherville, Md.; Mrs. Richard Conley, Wilmington, Del.; Mrs. Edward A. Flanagan, of Baltimore, and Mrs. Martin K. Dalton, from Springfield, Va.

Sister Rosemary Pfaff, president of the college, will serve as honorary president of the organization, and Sister Mary Ellen Kelley, dean of students at the college, will continue to serve as alumnae moderator. Past president of the alumnae association is Miss Ruth R. Startt, Easton, Md.

Nursing Students Named To Offices

Five Saint Joseph College nursing students have been elected to several important posts in the Student Nurse Council of Maryland, the state-wide organization of nursing students from all accredited Maryland colleges.

Joyce Hillner, a Junior from Irvington, N. J., is the newly-elected president of District No. 1, of the Student Nurses' Council of Maryland. On the state level, Linda Bowman, from Washington, D. C., is the 1962-63 recording secretary, and Mary Sullivan, of Glens Falls, N. Y., is the corresponding secretary. Joyce Hillner was appointed as a member of the nominating committee.

The student nurse organization of Maryland met at Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore, where films showing the participation of Saint Joseph College alumnae, Janice Jaeger and Lynn Nugent, in the group's annual convention in Annapolis were shown. The council pledged to raise a sum of one million Taiwan dollars (equivalent to about $100) for use in the training of a student nurse in Taiwan. Sheila Deggan, Saint Joseph College Senior in nursing, was elected as chairman of Student Organization Project for the Student Nurses' Council of Maryland.

Graduates Do Mission Work

Three 1962 graduates of Saint Joseph College have journeyed to Alamogordo, N. M., to serve as lay apostolates for one year of teaching. The alumnae group will teach at the Immaculate Conception Elementary School in Alamogordo, serving without salary for the academic year.

Among the lay apostolates from the 1962 class are: Joy Ann Knapik, Shamokin, Pa.; Bea Mullin, Edgewater, N. J., and Carol Rossman, Baltimore.

The three volunteers this year increase the total number of lay apostolates contributed by Saint Joseph College to 30 representatives who have given one year to teaching and working in the mission schools since the college first joined the movement in 1957.

The Immaculate Conception School in Alamogordo was opened in 1957, staffed by two Franciscan Sisters and two Saint Joseph College graduates. The recent volunteers have pledged to teach during the year ending in June, 1963, without salary, accepting only travel expenses and room and board, plus a small spending allowance. At Saint Joseph College, the Blessed Clet Unit will continue to work for the support of the lay apostolates, accumulating funds by voluntary offerings of the students, and profits from the student-staffed mission shop on campus.

Jim Deegan's Remarkable Mountaineer Coaching Job Is Throw-back To Old Era

Personable Jim Deegan, Mount St. Mary's Einstein of the cinder path, is a whoop and holler guy who is a throw-back to the vintage school of coaching. And he gets amazing results.

The 28-year-old Mountie mentor, lean as a greyhound himself, starred in soccer and track at West Chester State College while knocking off honors in math before coming to Mount St. Mary's in 1956 to pump new blood into an anemic soccer squad and build a rounded track program.

The problems were enough to dampen even the enthusiasm of one as youthful and zestful as Deegan. The pitchmen were Mason-Dixon doormats, a favorite target of every squad in the conference. The runners raced about the turf of Echo Field over unmarked distances, then ran all their meets away from home, spending long afternoons in fruitless pursuit of their opponents. Cross country hopefuls frequently got lost in the mountains, and had to be led home by search parties. Mountaineer students, rabid cage fans accustomed to better things in the gymnasium where they manhandled M-D basketball foes, eyed the pitchmen and trackmen with the knowing look of those who feel sorry for lunatics.

ALL HAS CHANGED

Now all that has changed. Deegan's track teams are constant Mason-Dixon powerhouses and the pitchmen, while not yet up to the top standard of the conference which plays the best small college soccer in the East, have such respect from their foes that wary coaches carefully avoid the Mountaineers when plotting their way to a winning season. Even the students have been converted into fans, who, if they are not as wild-eyed as the gym crowd, no longer avoid the soccer field or the track as if they were booby-trapped with land mines.

No flags fly at Deegan's soccer record, on the face of it a sorry 24 wins, 39 losses and 1 tie. But track as if they were booby-trapped with land mines.

COACH DEEGAN

when one considers that in the old days, and occasionally still, you could find the nimble head man of the booters walking from end to end of the field patiently telling squad members "this is the goal," "this the center line," "this the penalty area," you wonder how he'll ever whip anyone.

Operating without any grant-in-aid help, Deegan wheedles brawny touch-footballers into soccer defensive posts. His siren song lures some of the quick-footed into wing jobs and he has done some remarkable sow's-ear-into-silk-purse transformations with his goalies. His own enthusiasm rubs off on his players and while he has more guys with two left feet than any coach in America his players are as spirited as a two-dollar long-shot bettor at the pari-mutuel window. Deegan makes that pay off — that and the hours of practice that start with the barest fundamentals.

BEST SCHOOL RECORD

Last season the booters posted

the best record in the nine-year history of soccer at the Mount, an 8-3 log in which the only losses were to Baltimore, the NCAA regional champ, Washington, the M-D leader and Frostburg, a perennial power. As always happens, Deegan starts over every season. After four years of polishing novices into all-stars, he loses the finished players he has created from scratch. Indeed one's mouth waters to think what he might do if he began with schooled athletes.

Deegan's track nomads have built a different kind of record. In six seasons they have won 32 dual meets while dropping only 7, all this on foreign fields. The trophy case at Memorial Gym glistens with the hardware the thinclads have toted home. Occasionally they have stepped into elite company at the Evening Star Games, the Penn Relays, or at VMI and brought smiles to Jimmy Deegan's face.

Now with a new $30,000 grass-tex track, Deegan expects to keep on selling schoolboy stars on the advantages of Mount St. Mary's. As a recruiter, he's as convincing

NCAA Cage Champions Face Rocky Road In Defense Of 1962's Basketball Laurels

Three Seniors, All-American John O'Reilly, talented Eddie Pfeiffer and set-shot artist Dave Maloney, headup Coach Jim Phelan's current basketball squad. The only starting holdovers from last year's championship quintet, the trio will need some man-sized help from the returning lettermen and incoming freshmen, if the squad is to survive in Mason-Dixon play, to say nothing of NCAA competition.

The two trouble spots are the inside berth vacated by Dick Talley's graduation, and the pivot post. Captain of the NCAA champs, Talley wound up his Mountaineer career with the third highest career mark, 1,390 points, in Mount St. Mary's history. Last year he carried a 14.3 average and managed eight rebounds a game. As a corner shooter, Talley was almost an automatic scorer and his absence is bound to hurt.

At center, the weakest spot in last year's lineup, Phelan lost 6'9 Dick Saylor at midyears; 6'3 Dave Samuels by graduation, and mountainous 6'5 Jack Campbell when the latter decided not to return to school. As a result, only gangling Bill Neuss, the people's choice, and a 6'6 pivotman, has any game experience. Neuss saw action in 13 of 30 games last year and will have to show rapid improvement if the Phelanmen are to control the boards and get inside scoring.

PROVEN STARS

are proven stars. Big John is probably Jack Sullivan's only rival as the best cager in Mountaineer history. He does everything well — rebounding, scoring, defense and ball handling. Pfeiffer and Maloney form one of the top back court duos in the East. Both are double figure shooters and Pfeiffer is a dazzling ball handler. Maloney is the team's best outside shooter.

Among the reserves, Phelan can look to Soph Lou Martine as a replacement for Talley. The Fr. Judge grad saw a good deal of action last season, has good hands and is an excellent shooter. If he improves quickly and smashes the boards, he could be a great help. Tom Wahl, a Junior back court replacement, needs only confidence to help Pfeiffer and Wahl carry the load.

The problem is that Phelan's help runs dry at this point, hardly an encouraging factor when the heavy going is frequently decided on bench strength. However, since the Mountaineers are still under the 750 student enrollment mark, they are permitted to play freshmen even in NCAA games. Phelan is counting heavily on help from highly touted incoming youngsters, 6'5 Bob McDermott of DeMatha High, considered by many experts the nation's top high school squad last season; Bethlehem's Fran Fenerly, another 6'5 prospect, who has a great deal of ability and a string of scoring marks; and Bernie Haag, of St. Anne's Rockville Center, who off his high school play might even push Pfeiffer and Maloney for a starting berth. John Carroll also of DeMatha looms as a fine prospect.

LITTLE TIME

Phelan will have little time to to weld his team. The Mountaineers crash into topflight competition when they open at home December 1 with Hofstra's Flying Dutchmen and then move on to
